I remain, Gentlemen, Yours very truly, H. GRAHAM EDDINGTON, Manager.

The Sydney Meat Preserving Company's Works, Haslem Creek, April 28th, 1873.

THREE STAR CLARET.

It has come to our knowledge that a report has industriously circulated by some dishonest person to the effect that the CLARET, CHABLIS, SAUTERNE, and other WINES imported and sold by us, with a label bearing the above mark and the name of A. VIGOURONS underneath, are composed partly or wholely of colonial wines, and that the cases, bottles, &c. are imported empty!! and filled here. However ridiculous this may appear to mercantile men, and those possessed of the moderate amount of knowledge necessary to enable them to distinguish French from Australian wines, it may mislead others. We will therefore pay £50 to any person who will give us such information as shall lead to the conviction for slander of the originator of this report.

To set at rest any further doubt on this subject, we have determined for the future, whenever it is practicable, to sell these wines in bond, leaving the purchaser to pay the import duty.

WOLFE'S AROMATIC SCHEIDAM SCHNAPPS (Registered).

It is an indisputable fact that the advantages of this perfectly pure beverage have now rendered it the most largely consumed of any imported spirit, the demand throughout the whole of the Australian colonies almost exceeding the capability of the proprietor to supply.

Wolfe's Schnapps is now occupying the place held in past years by inferior brands of geneva, the medical profession testifying to its excellence over these and other adulterated spirits, including French brandy, in no less than which are in the possession of the manufacturer, all certifying to its perfect purity and marked superiority over every other stimulant as a diuretic, tonic, and restorative.

The Resident Physician of the Sydney Infirmary says: —"I have no hesitation in stating that I consider your Schnapps a most excellent stimulant and diuretic."

The Government Analytical Chemist, Melbourne, says: —"As a sample of hollands gin, I do not think it can be surpassed. It may be recommended for use in hospital and private practice as a good aromatic stimulant."

CAUTION.

An injunction against the sale of a counterfeited article has recently been granted in the Supreme Court of New South Wales, under a penalty of £30,000; and we are instructed, with a view to protect the public, to prosecute any one offering for sale any imitation of the genuine brand, for which we are the sole Wholesale Agents for the whole of Australia and New Zealand.

ALEXANDER MOORE and CO., Auctioneers, Valuators, Furniture Brokers, Importers, Cabinet Makers, Upholsterers, Ironmongers, and General Commission Agents, Labour Bazaar, 285, 287, 289, 291, 293, and 295, Pitt-street, Sydney.

Established 1840.

3000 CHAIRS and 100 sofas, card tables, drawing-room suites, and everything required for balls or parties, to be LET on HIRE at the Labour Bazaar. Any quantity of new and second-hand furniture purchased for cash.

TO PARTIES LEAVING THE COLONY.—As many persons object to have a sale by auction at their residences, the undersigned offer the advantage of purchasing private Household Furniture, Silver Plate, Pictures, Horses, Carriages, and every description of property for cash, and giving the parties the use of them until they are ready to leave Sydney.

They also make advances on goods for immediate sale by auction at private residences, or at their Rooms, without any charge for interest.

An auction is held every day at 11 o'clock, for the disposal of every description of portable property.

Boxes and furniture stored for any period that may agreed upon, at a low rate.

ALEXANDER MOORE and CO., Auctioneers, Valuators, Furniture Brokers, Importers, and General Commission Agents, 285, 287, 289, 291, 293, and 295, Pitt-street, Sydney.

Established 1840.

Private communications strictly attended to.

A PERSISTENT IMPOSITION.—Notwithstanding the repeated exposure of the false pretences of certain unprincipled persons, they still practise their impositions on a credulous public—we allude to dealers in imitations of the Wheeler and Wilson's sewing-machines.

It is universally admitted that no Sewing-machine has approached the silent working WHEELER and WILSON, in rapidity of action, firmness and elasticity of stitch, perfect adaptation to every kind of work, easiness of comprehension to the learner, simplicity of construction, and amazing durability.

Over 1,000,000 in use, and the sale now exceeds the prodigious number of 150,000 A YEAR.

Every Machine warranted to give perfect satisfaction.

Sold on the most liberal time payment system by LONG and CO., Sole Agents, 287, George-street.

Send for a Circular.

SEWING-MACHINES, GUARANTEED FOR FIVE YEARS. THE "HOME," LOCK-STITCH.

The most simple, compact, and durable Lock-stitch Machine in Australia. It uses a straight needle, makes a stitch alike on both sides, and is adapted to every kind of sewing—from muslin to leather.

Over two thousand machines are at work in all parts of the colony, and we guarantee our sales are now larger than of any other kind, high or low priced.

They will hem, fell, bind, cord, braid, quilt, seam, tuck, ruffle, hem-stitch, and gather with silk, linen, or cotton thread.

We furnish, free of cost, with each machine, one shuttle, extra bobbins, hemmer, oil can, oil, screw-driver, five needles, gauge, table clamp, and full directions for use, all securely packed in strong case.

PRICE, £4 10s.

THE "COMMON SENSE" CHAIN-STITCH.

Acknowledged superior to any Chain-stitch Machine. Over fifteen hundred machines now in use in Australia.

Will stitch, hem, fell, tuck, quilt, cord, bind, braid, and embroider. Is self-feeding, and will sew from muslin to beaver, at the rate of 1200 stitches per minute.

We supply, free of cost, hemmer, gauge, screw-driver, oil can, oil, four needles, table clamp, and full directions for use, all securely packed in strong case.

PRICE, £3.

The above machines have been worked by children six years old, and may be seen at our office.

Tables and treadles for either machine, price 40s.

Forwarded on receipt of Post Office Order.

Circulars and genuine colonial testimonials post free on application.

CENTRAL POLICE COURT.

BEFORE the Police Magistrate, with Messrs. Murphy, Pearce, Love, Spence, Cohen, and Ducker.

Thirty-seven persons were fined in sums varying from 1s. to 40s., on conviction of drunkenness or of riotous behaviour, or of using obscene language. One of these, Peter Cunninghame, when apprehended for drunkenness, assaulted the constable (Brook), and on being charged therewith, and pleading guilty, was sentenced to be imprisoned two months.

Mary Ann Wright, convicted of being an idle and disorderly person, having neither fixed abode nor lawful means of support, was sentenced to be imprisoned one month. Ellen Ryan and Mary Green, similarly charged, were sentenced to be imprisoned three months. Ellen Ryan said that she had a fixed residence, and gave the address, whereupon the magistrate sent the accusing constable to make inquiry. On his return, he said that he found the person named by Ryan, who said that she knew her, but would not come to give evidence. Sentence was thereupon passed, as above stated.

Five prisoners were discharged, and three were remanded.

On the summons paper were twelve cases, one-half of which were dismissed,—some on their merits, and others for want of prosecution. William Kerr, charged with having unlawfully absented himself from the service of Thomas Z. Cockedge, pleaded guilty, and was ordered to pay a penalty of 40s. In Boyd v. Pullen, affiliation, a consent order was taken for 6s. a week. Joseph Bland was fined 10s. for using obscene language, and Thomas Murphy was fined 5s. for interrupting the carriage way of George-street with an omnibus and horses. Sophia Pearce complained of Elizabeth Tresnan that she threatened to put something through her, in consequence whereof she, being afraid, prayed for protection. Defendant was ordered to enter into a recognisance with one surety in £10 to keep the peace six months, or, failing in such recognisance, to be imprisoned three months.

ERRATUM.—The warrant issued on Saturday was not, as erroneously stated in yesterday's paper, for Williams and his wife, but for Williams only, who is now under remand.

WATER POLICE COURT.

MONDAY.

BEFORE the Water Police Magistrate and Messrs. Meyer, Lester, and Smithers.

Fifteen persons were fined for drunkenness.

John Stephenson was fined 10s., in default four days' imprisonment, for riotous behaviour in Argyle-street.

Joseph Bowman, who was fined for drunkenness and making use of obscene language, was convicted of an assault upon constable Thomas, and ordered to pay an additional penalty of 40s., in default fourteen days imprisonment.

Charles Deem was fined 20s. for making use of obscene language in Watson's Road.

Bridget Davis, charged with a similar offence in Fitzroy-street, was ordered to pay a penalty of 10s., in default four days' imprisonment.

Michael Connors, who was fined for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, was ordered to pay an additional penalty of 20s., in default seven days' imprisonment, for destroying a constable's uniform coat.

John Littlewood, charged on the information of Johannah Littlewood with threatening language, was ordered to find sureties to keep the peace for six months.

Kitty, an aboriginal, was fined 40s., in default of payment to go to gaol for three months, for riotous behaviour in Macquarie-street.

SUMMONS SHEET.—Jane Reymond was fined 20s. for making use of indecent language in Queen's-place. Charles Marsden, charged with assaulting a constable in the execution of his duty, was sentenced to one month's imprisonment.

EXHIBITION SALES.

THE cattle sales on the Exhibition Ground yesterday were well attended, and most of the principal stock-breeders were present. The bidding was spirited, and the prices taken right through ruled high.

Mr. George Kiss disposed of the following:—On account of Mr. Thomas Lee: Corporal, a young bull, purchased by Mr. J. Badgery, for 20 guineas; Oma Pacha, a roan bull, by Mr. H. C. White, 75 guineas; Nobleman, a roan bull, by Mr. F. White, 75 guineas; Llewellan, a red and white bull, Messrs. T. and F. Hindmarsh, 50 guineas; The Pearl, a roan bull, Mr. B. Richards, 41 guineas; Jav'lin, a red and white bull, Mr. B. Richards, 31 guineas; Model Count, red and white bull, Mr. G. Osborne, 140 guineas. On account of Mr. Henry Lee: Emperor, a dark roan bull, Mr. Loder, 61 guineas; Marquis, a light roan bull, Mr. F. White, 75 guineas. On account of Mr. W. W. Ewin: Matilda 10th, a rich roan heifer (bred by Mr. R. Morton, of Mount Derrimut, Victoria), Mr. Eales, purchaser, 1150 guineas; Lady Woodstock, a red heifer, Mr. De Murrick, 75 guineas. On account of Mr. A. K. Mackenzie: Demosthenes, a young roan bull, Mr. J. Jelly, 24 guineas. On account of Messrs. P. and J. Brisbane, Berwick, Victoria: Duke of the Butterflies (bred by Mr. Richard Morton, of Mount Derrimut, Victoria), Mr. Weaver, purchaser, 700 guineas.

Mr. Want reports the sale of the following, the property of Mr. Jenkins, of Nepean Towers:—Victoria's Theodore, 14 months old, to Mr. W. Dumaresq, 300 guineas; Theodore 15, 9 months old, to Mr. Ashcroft, 300 guineas; Theodore 11, 16 months old, Mr. Ashcroft, 200 guineas; Napier, 14 months old, 150 guineas; Theodore 9, 15 months old, Mr. Strickland, 200 guineas; Prince Victoria, 3½ years old, to Mr. W. H. Suttor, of Bathurst, for 800 guineas; Theodore 21, to Mr. Baldwin 200 guineas; Judy 5, 12 months old, the first prize heifer calf, for 500 guineas; total, 2600 guineas.

On behalf of Mr. E. K. Cox, Mr. Blomfield sold a white bull, aged 14 months, by Essendon out of Flora the 5th, &c., &c., by Master of Athelstane; sire and dam bred by Mr. A. M'Dougall, of Essendon, Victoria; for 100 guineas, to the Hon. John Hay.

Calf by the same breeder, withdrawn at 50 guineas.

The prize Hereford heifer, Matilda, bought privately at the opening of the Exhibition by Mr. Ewin, was resold yesterday at a price that left that gentleman with her yearling sister for a trifle. The prize bull purchased by Mr. Hindmarsh does not go to Ulladulla, as previously stated, but will go to Gerringong.

MINING NEWS.

GOLD.

HILL END AND VICINITY.—On Saturday the Times publishes a report, dated the previous day, in which it says:—Mathewson's Shakespeare has cut the Star of Peace vein, and they are at present raising some first-class stone from that mine. Some of the quartz looked really good, gold being well distributed through the stone. At Jeffree and Gelland's they still continue to grass stone of a splendid description. A crushing will shortly take place from this mine, and a splendid result may be confidently anticipated. At Eisenstaedter's Royal Standard line of reef, really first-class stone is being got. The quartz at grass displayed really good gold, right through the solid stone. They have lately cut another vein in this claim, which also carried good gold of a coarse description. The bulk will crush well. The quartz is full of minerals, and looks much like the stone being obtained from some of the well-known claims on the hill. At Hickson, Creighton, and Beard's a fresh vein has been cut, 6 feet to the east of any previously worked in the claim. This vein is about a foot in thickness, and displays fair gold, something like 2 oz. to the ton. Krohmanns have commenced stoping out on Carroll and Beard's vein. They have not knocked down the quartz as yet; but it is of a first-class quality. They have also obtained some prime stone from the old workings during the week. A crushing will take place next month, and another big yield may be looked for. At Carroll and Beard's most of the attention is at present given to the erection of machinery and surface operations. These will soon be completed. The Queen of the Ranges, Turon, is at present crushing at Cahill's machine, and a good result is anticipated; some of the stone displayed good gold right through the solid stone. At the Poor Man's Friend, in the same locality, good gold is also being obtained. At Hawkins Hill, the Star of Peace is busily engaged stoping out quartz; the stone, being grassed, is much the same as that lately crushed. Also engaged sinking straight shaft to cut the reef at a depth. Rampant Lion: Driving along the reef at the bottom of the shaft. The reef is about 8 or 10 inches thick, and shows fair gold—say about 2 oz. to the ton. Have got about 10 or 15 tons of quartz at grass. Hickson, Creighton, and Beard's: Stoping out quartz from east and west workings. Have cut another vein 6 feet to the east. This vein is about a foot thick, and shows gold like 2 oz. to the ton. Expect to cut another vein in another 5 or 6 feet. The stone from the old workings continues about the same, rather better than 2 oz. stone. Are still raising stone from the small vein. Some of the stone obtained from this vein would go 20 or 30 oz. Are at present raising 5 or 6 cwt. stone from it. Paxton's: Have nearly finished packing stone to Pullen's. Cock, Attwood, and Dwyer's: Stoping out quartz from easterly workings. Got a reef about two feet thick, showing fair gold; have about 70 tons or rather better at grass. Brown's: Raising quartz from the back of the easterly vein. Got about 30 tons at grass. Also driving to the west at a 300-feet level, and in over 20 feet. The stone at grass shows fair gold, something like the trial crushing from the same vein; this trial crushing went 1 oz. 16 dwt. to the ton. Rawsthorne's: Busily engaged stoping and getting stone of a fair average quality. Got about 160 tons at grass. This stone is being obtained from about a 240 feet level. Monte Christo: Putting in a cross-cut east for the purpose of discovering veins. Also sinking the shaft and stoping out quartz. The shaft is down about 244 feet. Got about 70 tons of quartz at grass. The stone continues to show payable gold. Beyers and Holtermann's: Still sinking in the north shaft, and down about 220 feet. Stoping out quartz from south shaft, with no particular change to report. Have got about 200 tons of quartz on platform. Carroll and Beards: Driving and sinking. Down about 270 feet. Are principally engaged at surface workings at present. The engine is completed, but the shed has not yet been finished. The tank is also completed. Are busily engaged laying platform for the reception of the quartz. As soon as surface workings are completed, underground workings will be carried on with much greater dispatch. Rapps': Still driving and sinking. Down with shaft 383 feet. The drive is in 43 feet. Have cut some leaders in the drive, but as yet not gold bearing. Eisenstaedter's Royal Standard: Are stoping out quartz at a 150 feet level. The reef averages about 9 inches in thickness. Some splendid stone is being got at present, and the quartz continues to improve as depth is attained. Have cut a fresh vein in the foot-wall, to the west of the reef they were stoping from. The vein is about three feet from the one they were working on. It is about seven inches thick, and also carries gold of a first-class description. Both these veins can be worked with one drive, as they are only three feet apart. Have got about 50 tons of quartz at grass, in all of which good gold is visible. The stone is full of minerals, and looks much like the stone obtained from the rich claims on the hill. The reef is also bound with a splendid-looking slate. The quartz being grassed, has much the appearance of that obtained on the main line of reef on the "Hill." Krohmann's: Have commenced to stope out quartz on Carroll and Beard's veins, near the boundary. Have not knocked down the stone as yet, but the quartz is good. Raising some first-class stone from the old workings, something like that obtained for last crushing. About 5 tons of first at grass, and about 26 tons of seconds. In addition to this, there is about half a ton of specimens in the safe. Have commenced to cut down the northern shaft, and when this work is completed and it is in good order, intend sinking it 50 feet below present workings. Will crush about the middle of next month. At the Turon the main perpendicular shaft of the Queen of the Ranges, which is being sunk to cut the reef at a depth, is down about 80 feet. Sinking is rather harder than it has been, with no other change to report. It is expected the reef will be cut under 100 feet. At the underlay shaft, have knocked down the quartz they have been lately driving. Some of this quartz showed first-class gold, better than any we have previously seen from this claim. Between 30 and 40 tons will be crushed, and a first-class yield is anticipated. Are at present engaged driving north and south, and stoping out quartz. Poor Man's Friend are engaged driving and stoping out quartz both north and south. At the south end the reef has made a good thickness, and displays very fair gold. At the north end, towards the Queen of the Ranges, very fair stone is also being obtained.

ADELONG.—The correspondent of the Gundagai Times of Saturday writes that mining news continues favorable, and that those at work on the Adelong Creek are now showing what perseverance will do. In the Adelong United Company's claim last week the report of the washings for ten days showed 163 oz. 10 dwts., or an average of about 16 oz. per day. The Wheal Unity Company is also turning out well. In reefing also matters look exceedingly well. The North Williams claim is likely to prove a second Williams G. M. Co., as the reef seems to be going into the claim with as rich stone as any yet seen. The Research Company are now sinking, and have a very fine reef under foot about 2 feet thick, carrying gold well. The Flagstaff Company have a splendid show, and may yet in time rival the Williams G. M. Company. At the latter celebrated claim they are supposed to have 1000 tons of stone in sight, and the machine of Messrs. Edwards and Co. has been purchased by the company, who are for the future going to crush their own stone.

TRUNKEY CREEK.—On Wednesday last (says the Bathurst Times of Saturday) Mr. S. Jagoe, of Trunkey, came into Bathurst with between £300 and £400 worth of gold, intending to proceed to Sydney, and from him we obtained the following particulars:—At the end of last week the Western Alexander claim (Jagoe, Frith, and party) crushed 14 tons of stone, which yielded 56 oz. of gold—at the rate of 4 oz. to the ton. On the Canadian (S. Green and party), 9 tons were crushed, and gave 9 oz. 2 dwts. 3 grs. Harris and Tangy, on Wilson's line of reef, about a mile north of the Bathurst Co.'s ground, crushed 18 yards, and the stone went 11 dwts. per yard. This was a "clearing up," and the stuff included surface stone, rubble, and the refuse of a previous crushing. M'Kay and party, on Wright's reef, had a small lot of stone put through the machine, and the yield was at the rate of ½-oz. to the yard, which, considering that the stuff can be procured in large quantities, was considered a good payable return. All this gold was in Mr. Jagoe's possession, and besides this he had over 19 oz. of alluvial, among which were some nice-looking nuggets weighing from 2 to 6 or 7 dwts. It is by no means a rare occurrence for large parcels of gold to be forwarded from Trunkey to Sydney by private hands, and from the yields obtained on many of the claims, it is plain that the creek is quietly but very steadily "going ahead."

SOLFERINO (YULGILBAR).—Writing on the 18th ultimo, the correspondent of the Clarence Examiner says that the proprietors of the Band of Hope prospecting area have cut the reef in the tunnel, and I have been shown some really excellent specimens out of that part of the claim. This now pretty well proves the reef the whole length of the claim. Crushing will shortly be resumed. Lundmark and party have taken No. 1 North, Band of Hope, on tribute for a term of two years. They have commenced a tunnel close to Wilson's crushing-machine, to cut the reef at a depth, and when this is completed they will have easy work to get the stone to the mill, as there will be no carting whatever. In the Flying Dutchman, they have the reef in the shaft at a depth of about 18 feet, with a good prospect in the stone, gold being visible. Matters generally are very quiet here, owing to the continued wet weather for the five months past, but it looks as if fair weather was about setting in now. Nos. 3 and 4, North Garibaldi, are on very good gold.

COPPER.

With regard to the mine at Cootralantra, Monaro district, it is reported that at the request of the legal manager an experienced supervisor of the copper mines (Mr. Goodfellow) made an inspection on the 22nd April last. In his report he says:—"I estimate the distance from Cooma to be about 16 miles; the road level and easy for teams to travel over. On arriving at the ground, I noticed there was any quantity of timber, just the sort for smelting operations, and from the extent of ground walked over and visible, I should consider there was a most plentiful supply of wood. The upper surface of the ground has not any extensive building on it—everything being of the most primitive description, consisting merely of a few calico tents, a slab building, a substantial stable, and a blacksmith's shop, the latter being well furnished with all the requisite appliances for making tools, &c. This shop is complete, and presided over by a really first-class smith. The underground workings comprise three shafts, respectively called the Old Tom, depth 107 feet; the Vercoe, 109 feet; and the Rodda, 35 feet. Paddocks of ore are scattered around these shafts; at the Old Tom there is a small pile containing about seven tons of rich sulphuret and black-coated ore, and forms portion of the last extracted. At the Vercoe there is a very large heap, containing fully 200 tons of mixed sulphuret ores, which I estimate to be 14 per cent.; thus this pile will alone yield 28 tons of pure copper when smelted. Several small piles of small sifted stuff lie about the workings, and I believe the stone piled on the west side of the shafts would likewise pay for picking and smelting. I descended the Vercoe shaft, which has carried sulphurets coated black, with occasional patches of rich black ore, from the 7-fathom level right down to its present depth. The lode at its narrowest point was a trifle over 2 feet, gradually opening out to 3 feet 6 inches. Standing at the bottom, and looking upwards, I noticed a splendid smooth wall—so straight that a stone dropped from the centre of top opening would strike the centre at bottom. I then walked into the drive now being made to connect the Vercoe with the Old Tom. This drive is now in 47 feet, and the ore has been extracted from wall to wall; thus the two walls are visible the whole length, and I can unhesitatingly say that I never in all my experience saw two better walls to copper lode. Ore was plainly seen all along the roof of this drive, and the stuff from it lying at grass is quite sufficient to show the richness and solidity of the lode. I then examined the stone raised from the Old Tom, and pronounce it to be a very rich lode, being fully 4 feet wide—2 feet 6 inches carrying magnificent flakey yellow coated black, and 9 inches each side of the wall carrying ore in smaller quantities. This shaft has likewise carried ore a portion of the way, and will be sunk deeper as soon as the drive is completed. I walked over a small portion of the ground, and noticed the same lode you are working on cropping out fully half a mile from the shafts, and from the appearance of the ground and other signs, I should pronounce this to be a 'Champion lode.' In conclusion, I have no hesitation in pronouncing this to be one of the richest mines ever opened in this colony, with every appearance of permanency; the ore is of fine quality, and for sulphurets richer than I have seen in any other of the New South Wales mines."

The Obley correspondent of the Dubbo Dispatch of Saturday writes thus with reference to the Goodrich mine:—"All the furnaces are now completed at the 'copper colony,' which is daily increasing in size, and which bids fair to rival some of the most noted copper companies. The furnaces, as I have already said, are now all three complete and the bottoms smelted; and I am glad to find that my former predictions as to the success of the Goodrich are now being amply realised. They commenced smelting on Friday last, and have already got about six tons of really good regulus, which are estimated to yield fully 45 per cent. of pure copper. This is, without exception, the most successful attempt at smelting from 'stray' ore that has ever come under my notice. All the water has now been bailed out of the mine, which looks splendid, and would gladden the heart as well as the eyes of any one interested in copper mining pursuits. The mine itself is some 60 feet deep, with a lode 40 feet wide, which depth will now soon be increased, as the company have some really practical miners in their employ. Men are also engaged 'dressing' ore. The stack of wood for the furnaces is immense, all white box, and leads one to speculate on how long it will take them to get rid of it, there being tons upon tons, all stacked and ready for use."

MARAVILLA COCOA.—Taylor, Brothers' (the largest manufacturers of cocoa in Europe), having the exclusive supply of this unrivalled Cocoa, invite comparison with any other cocoa for purity—fine aroma—sanative, nutritive, and sustaining power—easiness of digestion—and especially, high delicious flavour. One trial will establish it as a favourite beverage for breakfast, luncheon, and a soothing refreshment after a late evening. N.B.—Caution, "Maravilla" is a registered trade mark.

MARAVILLA COCOA.—The Globe says:—"Taylor, Brothers' Maravilla Cocoa has achieved a thorough success, and supersedes every other Cocoa in the market. Entire solubility, a delicate aroma, and a rare concentration of the purest elements of nutrition, distinguish the Maravilla Cocoa above all others. For invalids and dyspeptics, we could not recommend a more agreeable or valuable beverage." For further favourable opinions vide Standard, Morning Post, British Medical Journal, &c.

HOMŒOPATHIC COCOA.—This original preparation, which has attained such a world-wide reputation, is manufactured by Taylor, Brothers, under the ablest homœopathic advice aided by the skill and experience of the inventors, and will be found to combine in an eminent degree the purity, fine aroma, and nutritious property of the fresh nut.

SOLUBLE CHOCOLATE, made in one minute without boiling. The above articles are prepared exclusively by Taylor, Brothers, the largest manufacturers in Europe, and sold in tin-lined packets only, by storekeepers and others all over the world. Steam Mills, Brick-lane, London. Export Chicory Mills, Bruges, Belgium.—ADV.

BREAKFAST.—EPPS'S COCOA.—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING.—"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills."—Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with boiling water or milk. The Dandenong (s.) cleared Port Phillip Heads, at 6 p.m. on Friday, passed Wilson's Promontory at 5.30 a.m. on Saturday, Gabo Island at 2.25 a.m. on Sunday, and arrived at Sydney at 5.15 a.m. on Monday. Experienced light variable winds and fine weather throughout the passage.

The Diamantina (s.) crossed the Macleay bar at 7 a.m. on the 26th instant, arrived at Port Macquarie at 5 p.m. same day, left at 8.15 a.m. on Sunday, and arrived at Sydney at 2.10 p.m. on Monday. Experienced moderate southerly breeze to Port Macquarie, light north-easterly airs to Seal Rocks, thence to Sydney moderate westerly winds, with fine weather throughout. Cargo: 1205 bags maize, 50 bags oysters, 82 hides, 9 coops poultry, 4 cases eggs, 15 live pigs, 1 cask tallow, 2 quarter-casks 3 kegs 1 jar wine, 3 casks pork.

The following consignment was omitted in the manifest of the British King, from London:—70 tons rock salt, 1100 bags salt, 440 casks and 3610 packages, John Fraser and Co.

The Northampton, Captain Barkley, arrived yesterday from London after a fair passage of 94 days from Gravesend. On inspecting her log it at a glance appears that the contrary winds which were met with at the commencement of the voyage, and indeed prevailed as a rule throughout the passage, had completely destroyed the possibility of her making a fast run out. She took her departure from Gravesend on the 24th January, discharging her pilot off the Isle of Wight on the 26th, and cleared the Channel on the 28th, the winds being heavy from the westward, attended with a high sea and sudden squalls. This weather lasted until February 5th, the ship then being in latitude 38·0 N., longitude 17·0 W. Baffling winds then retarded the vessel's progress until 14th February, when she caught the N.E. trades in latitude 21·0 N. and longitude 20·0 W. Passed through the Cape de Verdes, and lost the trades in 2·18 N. and 23·0 W. The S.E. trades were picked up on February 24th, the Equator being crossed on the following day, in longitude 20·30 W. The trade wind proved moderate and large, and was lost on 7th March, in latitude 23·35 S., longitude 22·0 W. The weather then came in from E.N.E. and round to S.E., and held from that direction to 17th March, the ship then being in latitude 39 S., longitude 5·22 W. Light S. and S.W. winds followed, bringing the vessel to the meridian of the Cape of Good Hope on 24th March, latitude 39 30 S.; from thence to longitude 60° E. the winds were prevailing from N.E., and then shifting to N.W. enabled the ship to make the meridian of Cape Leuwin on 15th instant. The weather has throughout been marked by heavy gales and thick foggy weather. The S.W. Cape of Van Diemen's Land was rounded on the 23rd instant, and W. and N.W. winds have prevailed on this coast. The Northampton brings a large cargo, and is to the consignment of Messrs. J. Fraser and Co.

The Fire King (s.) crossed the Manning River bar at 8 a.m. on the 27th instant, and arrived alongside the Company's wharf at 4.45 a.m. on the 28th. Experienced light variable winds and fine weather throughout. Her cargo comprises 300 bags maize, 204 cedar boards, 54 hides, 19 cases eggs, 10 coops poultry, 50 pigs, 11 cases oranges, 1 parcel silver, and sundries.

The schooner Peri, Captain Costin, whilst crossing the Manning River bar, bound to Sydney, shipped a sea, and the wind falling light she broached-to and drifted on to the south of the spit. After discharging part of her cargo she floated off, but was making a great deal of water. Captain Costin was a passenger by the Fire King, which arrived yesterday morning.

The Agnes Irving (s.) left Grafton on Saturday, the 26th, at 8.15 a.m., crossed the bar same day at 5.15 p.m., and arrived in Sydney on Monday, the 28th, at 7 a.m. Cargo: 1902 bags maize, 161 bags antimony, 161 bags tin ore, 75 bags oysters, 22 bags sugar, 1295 bunches bananas, 5 casks tallow, 3 casks molasses, 109 hides, 11 cases eggs, 7 coops fowls, 14 pigs, 3 calves, 1 horse, and sundries.

The Cargo of the Illalong (s.) comprises 232 bags copper ore, 50 hides, 100 bags bark, 120 kegs butter, 600 cheeses, 6 bales leather, 7 casks tallow, 6 horses, 3 buggies, and sundries.

The Lady Young (s.) left Brisbane on the 26th instant, at noon; rounded Cape Moreton at 4.30 p.m., passed Smoky Cape on Sunday, at 7.15 p.m.; entered Port Jackson on Monday, at 3 p.m.; and arrived alongside the Company's wharf at 4.15 p.m. Experienced strong southerly and easterly winds, with heavy rain and confused sea, to the Solitaries; light variable winds and fine weather to Port Stephens, and fresh westerly winds the remainder of the passage. On Sunday, at noon, passed the City of Brisbane (s.), 15 miles south of Clarence River.

The Bulli (s.), having taken in a full cargo of coal at the Bulli mines for transhipment to the Northumberland (s.), at Melbourne, took her departure on Saturday evening, and is reported as passing Twofold Bay at 5 p.m. on the 27th.

The schooner Jessie returned yesterday from Torres Straits via Cleveland Bay, having left the latter port on 5th March. She reports very variable winds throughout her passage.

H. M. S. Blanche, from Melbourne the 24th instant, brings up sixty seamen attached to H. M. Service, who arrived by the s. s. Northumberland, from England, for the purpose of recruiting the squadron. The Blanche prosecuted her passage principally under canvas, and yesterday afternoon proceeded to the Government establishment at Cockatoo, where she will be docked by Mr. Cuthbert, for the purpose of being sighted and overhauled.

A ship, bound north, passed Twofold Bay yesterday, at noon.

The Maitland (s.), Captain Budd, arrived at the Company's wharf yesterday afternoon, having made the passage from Newcastle in 5 hours 40 minutes against a fresh southerly from the north head of Broken Bay.

The brig Sarah, which arrived yesterday from Melbourne, is bound to Mauritius, and will prosecute her voyage via Torres Straits.

The Rangatira (s.) left the Sandridge Railway Pier on April 26th at 2.15 p.m., cleared the Heads at 5.30 p.m., passed Cape Schank at 7.30 p.m. the same day, rounded the Promontory on the 27th at 3.30 a.m., rounded Gabo Island at 11.35 p.m., passed Montague Island at 9.5 a.m. on the 28th instant, entered Sydney Heads at 11.15 p.m., and arrived at the A. S. N. Co.'s wharf at 12.20 a.m. on the 28th. Experienced strong S. and S.E. winds throughout.

The sailing of the A. S. N. Co.'s steamship Victoria to Auckland has been postponed until Wednesday, at special request of shippers.

The barque Signal was towed to Newcastle last night, by the Newcastle Co-operative Company's tug Prince Alfred.

REORGANIZATION OF THE COMPANY.

At the half-yearly General Meeting, held on the 23rd instant, it was unanimously resolved by the contributing shareholders present to continue operations.

The prospects of the mine are excellent; indeed it is now simply a question of a little more capital to develope what is proved beyond doubt a good property.

The proposed new capital is being raised by the issue of 12,000 shares of £1 each (on which 15s. is considered paid up), thus leaving a liability of 5s per share, 2s 6d to be paid on application, and the Directors are in hopes of not requiring any further sum.

Applications have already been received for over 6000 shares, but the Directors will not proceed with the work until 3000 more are applied for.

Shareholders are requested to apply immediately for the new issue, as these shares are now offered to the general public.

Applications to be made to us, at our Office, 165, Pitt-street.

MELHADO and CURTIS.

THE UNDERSIGNED wishes to notify that he has commenced business as a Stock and Station Agent. He will undertake all business connected with the disposal or purchase of stock or stations, and will be glad to receive lists of stock or stations for sale, either privately or by public auction.

TUESDAY, APRIL 29, 1873.

Although a part of the Exhibition will continue the attractions of the past week, the great interest of the display is, for many persons, concluded. The increase of those noble specimens of animal life which have been made in the last few years seems a pledge of increased attention to one source of colonial wealth. The cattle of this country require to be continually watched, and the means which are recognized constantly applied to prevent degeneration. A few colonists still remain who recollect when the sheep chiefly known in this country were of the Bengal breed, and when the wool, if such it might be called, had no commercial value; and, we presume, also, the importation of inferior cattle was occasioned by the contiguity of this country to India. The fortunate speculation in a few sheep from the Cape, and of several of European origin, and the subsequent labours and enlightened attention to the sources of superiority brought the sheep of this country into great repute, and finally added an element of wealth to the empire, still growing in consequence. The advance of this kind of stock has been followed up by improvements in the herds at one time retarded by the deficiency of our laws and by inability to adopt those methods which have since given so great an impetus to its encouragement. When we consider the magnitude of the meat interest both in the colonies and in Europe, and the vast demand which is sure to spring up with the improved comfort of the people and their growing numbers, we can see at once that nothing but neglect can lessen the call for the stock of this country or diminish the demand for well-managed estates, though there may be less scope for gambling speculations. These last are circumscribed by the rapidity of communication which reduces one-half the distance between the Australian and the English market.

The improvement so much stimulated by rivalry in the quality of stock, and its gradual adaptation to the various wants of those who deal with it, is certainly greatly encouraged by such exhibitions as have recently afforded all classes delight. Men are not stocks and stones, nor mere money-changers; but there is a constant pleasure in useful competition, perhaps less than a poet would describe, but certainly increasing in influence. Gentlemen who have command of money find not only occasional gain but habitual satisfaction in seeing their stock improved, and where it is the result of great care and cost, it deserves special recognition as one of the most useful pursuits by which a liberal mind can be attracted.

There is indeed a great charm in animal life, in watching the habits which are elicited, and in observing the growth of qualities resulting from intelligence and care. A few years ago, a work by Elihu Burritt recorded his travels through some of the most celebrated stock districts of England. His description of several great farms, and the triumphs of the shorthorn cattle as well as of the Scottish and Devonshire stock was a very interesting part of his narrative. To those who do not become absorbed in improvements it is difficult at first to enter into the enthusiasm of great admirers and actors in the science of cattle rearing—the almost parental care devoted to rearing and training them. Of course in bringing a horse to the perfection of a racer, there is a different class of sympathies and objects in comparison with the ox and sheep. The advantages derived are almost unmixed in these last. Some of our readers will remember the humourous description of the late Lord Althorp, given by Sydney Smith, who seemed to estimate his lordship's interest in shorthorns as even greater than his celebrated patronage of ten pound electors. In fact, he was among the noblemen who were not dependent upon politics for enjoyment, but who took an enlightened and generous interest in all kinds of farming, by which the improvement made by one becomes the inheritance of many.

Our readers will have seen with surprise the alleged inferiority of sheep in this colony, and how the people of Queensland can give a better account of their stations than the pastoral patriarchs of New South Wales. That it is possible for people to repose upon their laurels is sufficiently proved both in pastoral and national affairs. All will remember the gloomy comparison made by our manufacturers at the first London Exhibition. Not that their inferiority was so great as to put England out of the market. She still had many points of pre-eminence, but the discoveries which were made then of inferiority roused competition and soon distanced competitors. Nations have lost their military renown at the time they thought they were invincible, because self-confidence had made them insolent and presumptuous. We hope that this will not be the case with our leaders in pastoral affairs. That it will not be we are greatly encouraged by the number of comparatively young men who are endeavouring to surpass the most successful attempts of their predecessors. Those who are trained to estimate the qualities of stock, of course, take in almost at one view the indications of excellence. Signs of general utility satisfy the common spectator. Every man not a dolt becomes somewhat acquainted with the qualities of a horse and the established marks of perfection. To this animal, so useful and so beautiful, there grows up a strong attraction, amounting in some cases to affection. This is reciprocated by unmistakable signs, and among the petty griefs of life is the loss of that dumb servant who in the most expressive manner often indicates his unalterable good-will. Even animals of an inferior attraction grow into our friends. The prophet has contrasted their fidelity and gratitude with the insensibility too often seen in bipeds of greater pretensions. The ox knoweth his owner. The music of the exhibition may have been somewhat harsh—something like the cries of a mob. The howling of dogs and the roaring of cattle weary of confinement we cannot certainly describe as harmonious. But animal sounds distributed over a country and undisturbed by suffering make up a far from displeasing concert. Haydn, in his "Creation," has tried to set in music the sounds of animal life in its rejoicing.

We quoted the other day the lamentations of a Californian journalist over the high rate of interest which the United States has to pay for its loans as compared with other countries of smaller wealth, population, and resources. Little colonies, like those in Australia, each with a population less than that of a first-class American city, can sell their securities for a better price than is obtainable by the Great Republic. But in the money market cause and effect are as rigidly connected as in any department of the physical universe, and it is neither by accident nor by mistake that the phenomenon referred to arises.

In that part of his history which describes the origin of the English National Debt, Lord Macaulay has some remarks which may still be read with profit by communities who complain of the rate of interest on their public loans. He says, "It may be desirable to add a few words touching the way in which the system of funding has affected the interests of the great commonwealth of nations. If it be true that whatever gives to intelligence an advantage over brute force, and to honesty an advantage over dishonesty, has a tendency to promote the happiness and virtue of our race, it can scarcely be denied that in the largest view the effect of this system has been salutary. For it is manifest that all credit depends on two things—on the power of a debtor to pay debts, and on his inclination to pay them. The power of a society to pay debts is proportioned to the progress which that society has made in industry and commerce, and in all the arts and sciences which flourish under the benignant influence of freedom and of equal law. The inclination of a society to pay debts is proportioned to the degree in which that society respects the obligations of plighted faith. Of the strength which consists in extent of territory and in number of fighting men, a rude despot who knows no law but his own childish fancies and headstrong passions, or a convention of Socialists which proclaims all property to be robbery, may have more than falls to the lot of the best and wisest Government. But the strength which is derived from the confidence of capitalists, such a despot, such a convention, never can possess. That strength—and it is a strength which has decided the event of more than one great conflict—flies by the law of its nature from barbarism and fraud, from tyranny and anarchy, to follow civilization and virtue, liberty and order."

So far as its ability to pay is concerned, the United States holds, perhaps, the first position in the world. Its accumulated wealth is not so great as that of Great Britain or of France, but its extent of available territory is enormous. Its agriculture, grazing, mineral, and manufacturing resources are indefinitely great. Its population is now larger than that of the United Kingdom, and is increasing with a rapidity known in no other part of the world; the mass of the working population are better off than anywhere except in the British colonies, and are therefore better able to bear the pressure of taxation. The fiscal resources of the country are more than equal to its present necessities, while the rapid increase of its wealth and population makes the existing burden proportionally lighter, or admits of a larger burden being imposed with no increase of the sense of pressure.

There is no grander security to be offered to a lender than that of the United States; and it would have been able to borrow on the best terms known to the money market had there been as much confidence in its integrity as in its financial resources. "Sir William Temple, in his interesting work on the Batavian federation, told his countrymen that, when he was ambassador at the Hague, the single province of Holland, then ruled by the frugal and prudent De Witte, owed about five millions sterling, for which four per cent. was always ready to the day, and that when any part of the principal was paid off, the public creditor received his money with tears, well knowing that he could find no other investment equally secure." Had the Dutchmen who played so large a part in colonising New York succeeded in naturalising in their new country this same financial integrity, the financial history of the United States would have been different. Unhappily, a less creditable temper has too much prevailed. Personal morality is perhaps of a higher average standard in the United States than elsewhere, but political and financial morality are by no means so high. It was complained many years ago that Sydney Smith, by his witty satire, damaged the reputation of the American States in the money market. But the real damage was done by the roguery that justified the satire, which was sufficiently proved by the fact that the literary castigation produced no good results. It is true that the central Government has never been guilty of repudiation, but then the States make up the federation; and it is always open to suspicion that the politicians who repudiate State debts would under pressure not be very nice about repudiating federal debts, and it is suspicion that does the mischief in the money market. At the close of the late civil war there was a strong party in favour of repaying the debt in depreciated paper, and for a time it seemed uncertain whether in spite of all warnings and reproaches the proposal would not be supported by a majority of votes. Happily for the credit of the country the opposite course was decided on, but the uncertainty which prevailed for a time produced an effect, the force of which is not spent. The Alabama negotiations too have had a somewhat unfavourable influence. After asking somewhere about two hundred millions for indirect claims, and then getting an award of three millions for direct claims, it appears that half that sum is really sufficient to meet all just demands. The balance is the American profit on diplomacy. It has been a smart transaction—very smart—perhaps of its kind unequalled in the history of international relations; but then a Government which makes money in that way with the approving acclamations of a whole people must not expect to borrow money at three per cent.

It has been occasionally said that only monarchies and stable Governments are really to be trusted with national debts—that republicanism and repudiation are convertible terms, and that it is only a question of time when every democracy will apply the sponge to the public debt. France, however, has lately given a striking proof that the holders of property will lend freely to a republic, and one too in a singularly unstable situation, and constantly threatened with an insurrection of communism. The high price of Australian securities shows also that these colonies, which are practically little republics, have a credit which older communities are beginning to envy. Fortunately for ourselves we have preserved the traditions of English public finance, and have not adopted the looser notions of our American cousins. No politician in his senses would attempt to curry favour with the electors by proposing to ease the public burden at the expense of the public creditor. It is to be hoped that this tone may never change, and that no pressure of debt or difficulty and no party tactics may ever deteriorate the reputation which our public securities are now acquiring.

THE LATE W. C. WENTWORTH.

The remains of the late William Charles Wentworth arrived in the harbour of Port Jackson by the British King, on Saturday, and it is expected that they will be privately removed to the residence of a friend of the deceased gentleman's family to-day.

As our readers are aware, a public funeral is to be accorded to the remains of the deceased patriot, and Mr. Richard Hill, M.L.A., Mr. Henry Halloran, the Principal Under-Secretary, and Mr. Edmund Fosbery, the Secretary to the Police Department, have been appointed a commission to make all the requisite arrangements for the funeral.

It is expected that the remains will be interred on Tuesday, the 6th of May; but this and other matters will probably be definitely determined upon in the course of to-day, when the Commissioners hold their first meeting. A very handsome mausoleum is being prepared at Vaucluse, Watson's Bay, for many years the residence of Mr. Wentworth; and some marble sculptures for its completion are on board the British King. The site selected is most appropriate, and is singularly picturesque and beautiful.

The place of burial will be consecrated by the Bishop of Sydney, who will probably deliver a short address on the occasion of the interment. The burial service for the dead having been read over the remains in England, will not, it is said, be repeated at the funeral.

The following members of the late Mr. Wentworth's family are now in Sydney:—Mrs. Wentworth, Mr. Fitzwilliam Wentworth, Mr. Darcy Wentworth, and Miss Wentworth.

We may mention that the communion service presented by the deceased gentleman to St. Andrew's Cathedral has, by a remarkable coincidence, been sent out to the colony in the British King.

Supreme Court.—Business This Day.—Master's Office, 10.30 a.m.: Tucker and another v. White and another, to proceed on defendant's discharge; re Hellyer's costs, adjourned taxation. At 11 a.m.: M'William v. M'William, adjourned taxation of defendant's costs.

District Court.—Causes for Tuesday, 29th April: Lees v. Mills, Wiley v. Bennett, Nerey v. Ireland, Jones v. Elliott, Orr v. Carlton.

Excursion to the Weatherboard.—Yesterday morning, his Excellency Sir Hercules Robinson, Governor-in-Chief of New South Wales; his Excellency the Honorable Charles Du Cane, the Governor-in-Chief of Tasmania; Mrs. Du Cane, the Honorable Saul Samuel, M.L.C., and four or five gentlemen, went by special train to the Weatherboard on the Western line, where they spent some time in view of the romantic scenery which occurs in that locality. The weather was delightfully fine, and a pleasanter day for a trip over the mountain line could hardly be desired. The excursionists returned to town before dark.

Sydney Hunt Club.—The settling over the Sydney Hunt Club meeting took place last evening at O'Brien's, when the following amounts were paid over, viz., Mr. De Mestre, £212 10s.; Mr. J. S. Smith, £70 10s.; Mr. Glennister, £64 10s. (and the cup for the Hunt Club Hurdle Race); Mr. J. De V. Lamb, £65 (with the Hunt Club Steeplechase Cup); Mr. J. L. Brown, £59 (and cup); Mr. Fagin, £34 10s., and Mr. Ivory, £3.

Tattersall's Club.—A meeting of Tattersall's Club was held last night at Tattersall's Hotel, when the following motion was submitted:—"That no person who has been proposed, rejected, or expelled as a member of Tattersall's Club shall be eligible as a member for a period of six months." An amendment to omit the word "six," and insert the word "one," was put and negatived, and the original motion agreed to.

Alarm of Fire.—About 8 o'clock last evening, an alarm of fire was raised in the city; and a manual engine was quickly drawn from the Pitt-street station to York-street, where it was said the fire had broken out. Happily it was confined to a chimney, in a small shop near the Theatre Royal; and the flames were extinguished without the aid of the engine.

Young Men's Christian Association.—The committee of this institution have recently enlisted the assistance of ministers of various denominations in conducting open air services on Hyde Park every Sunday afternoon. Sermons have already been preached by the Rev. Messrs. T. Gainford, G. Sutherland, O. Carr, T. Johnson, and F. Hibberd, and on each occasion there was present a large concourse of persons. The Rev. G. Martin is announced to preach next Sunday. The monthly breakfast meeting in connection with the association was held in the Temperance Hall on Sunday morning; the Rev. J. C. Kirby presided, and addresses were delivered by the chairman, Messrs. G. Webber, B. Dowling, J. Pottie, J. Lees, and J. Kingsbury. An open Bible class, for Scriptural conversation, has been held every Sunday afternoon, for some time past, in the Temperance Hall, and has been attended by many visitors from the country, as well as other persons.

Victoria Theatre.—This evening, Mr. W. J. Wilson, scenic artist, is to take a benefit at the Victoria Theatre. The pieces selected are "New Men and Old Acres," a comedy which has not yet been performed in Sydney, and "The Irish Tutor." The interval between the comedy and the farce is to be filled up with a clog dance.

The Volunteer Artillery.—On Saturday afternoon there was a commanding officer's parade of the Volunteer Artillery. The men assembled at their usual mustering place, Hyde Park, in full uniform; but the attendance was not very large, owing probably to the parade coming on so soon after the camp. Major Shepherd, with whom was Major Wilson, arrived at about half-past 3, and the force, headed by their band, under Mr. Cork (bandmaster), moved off to the Inner Domain. Here the various batteries were inspected by Major Shepherd, who examined critically the condition of the arms and accoutrements, and it was found that many of the carbines required some attention. After the inspection, the Artillery were exercised in a few practical manœuvres, chiefly such as would be executed on a field-day. Upon the termination of this afternoon's work Major Shepherd addressed the brigade and returned them his most cordial thanks for their steadiness and soldierly conduct at the encampment. Their good discipline, attention, and general demeanour had been such as to elicit the approbation of old campaigners. His thanks were also due to the officers, and especially Lieutenants Remington and Kirchner, who had held acting staff appointments, for the support they had accorded him. He trusted the Artillery would persevere in their good conduct and strive to sustain the reputation they had earned. At the termination of the Major's address discipline was so far relaxed that three hearty and spontaneous cheers were accorded him, supplemented by three more for Major Wilson. It is much to be regretted that some better mustering place cannot be devised by the authorities for the Volunteer Artillery. That at present used, Hyde Park, is simply under almost all circumstances a dust-hole; and the patience of the Volunteers is sorely tested by the somewhat arduous trial of being compelled to stand, for half-an-hour together amid showers of grit. Besides which, one saturation with dust does more injury to a uniform than three with water. There was some promise last year of a commodious drill shed being erected for the use of the force generally; but there has been no sign of it yet.

Wooden Railways in Canada.—An English journal states that the wooden railroads in the vicinity of Quebec have attracted some attention. It appears that there are now 100 miles in operation. The gauge is 4 feet 8½ inches. The running time is about sixteen miles per hour, but trains have been run at the rate of thirty-five miles per hour. The rails are made of maple, 4 inches by 7 inches, set up edgewise, and notched into the cross ties 4 inches deep, and held by two wedges down in the notch on the outside of the rail. The ties are 8 inches thick, and laid 20 inches apart. The cars have four wheels, and some of the engines weigh thirty tons. In frosty weather the driving wheels have less adhesion than on metal rails, but no considerable difficulty is experienced from this cause. The rails will last from two to four years, according to the quality of the timber and the amount of the traffic. The cost of such roads is from 4000 dollars to 7000 dollars per mile. They seem to be very well adapted for light traffic, and as soon as the business of such lines may require it, metal rails may be substituted for wood without any change in the equipment.

An Exchange Wanted for Melbourne.—A writer in the Australasian laments the absence of an Exchange in Melbourne, and speak of the "want" in the following terms:—The Melbourne Chamber of Commerce has been in existence for twenty-two years, and there is not an Exchange-room in the metropolis of Victoria worthy the name. I have said something very like this before, but it is only by repetition that the discreditable fact will come home and produce a fitting sense of shame. At the annual meeting the other day, the president discussed a wide range of topics. He could plainly perceive the mistakes and shortcomings of Governments, but he said nothing about the obvious neglect of duty of the merchants themselves in this matter. A visitor from another colony said to a commercial man the other day, "I would like to see the papers. Introduce me to your news-room." But his Melbourne friend knew better. He had the credit of the colony too much at heart. He made some excuse about the stringency of the rules relating to strangers, and thus evaded the proposal.

A Worthy Example.—The miners employed at the Cootralantra mine (says the Monaro Mercury) have set an example to the bushmen and majority of working classes in the matter of charity. Through the exertion of the legal manager of the mine, Mr. D. Moses, they have each contributed a small sum to the funds of the Cooma Hospital, and purpose to contribute a portion of their wages on each pay day to the same purpose.

Fatal Gun Accident.—A young man named Joseph Jessop (says the Braidwood Dispatch) has been accidentally killed by the explosion of a gun at the saw mills, Tuross River, near Moruya. It seems that he attempted two or three times to let off a loaded gun by applying lighted shavings to the nipple, but not succeeding, he heated an iron rod and the gun exploded, inflicting such severe injuries upon him that he died.

Earthquake in Victoria.—A slight shock of earthquake (observes the Argus) was felt in several localities not far distant from Melbourne on Tuesday afternoon. According to accounts that have been received at the Melbourne Observatory, the shock appears to have been most severely felt about twenty-eight miles south-east of Melbourne. A gentleman residing near Berwick reports its occurrence at half-past 4 in the afternoon; it lasted about 20 seconds, its direction appearing to be from N.W. or N.W. by W. It was accompanied by a loud rumbling noise. The shock itself caused glasses and crockery to rock about, but not sufficient to capsize them. A gentleman residing at Tyabb, Western Port, also reports the occurrence of the shock at that place at fifteen minutes past 4, and describes it as coming from east towards west, accompanied by a loud noise as if from a carriage on a macadamised road. The observer felt as if there were a roll or wave of the ground under him, which caused the wooden house he was in to creak audibly. Fishermen in a boat in Western Port Bay heard the noise of the shock, but attributed it to distant thunder.

Claus and Rekel Concert.—Last night, Mesdemoiselles Claus and Rekel gave another concert at the Masonic Hall, which was crowded. In the first portion of the programme Mr. Edward Farley sang with much ability two English songs—"The Last Man" (by Calcott) and Hatton's well-known and favourite buffo song—"A Friar of Orders Grey." Monsieur Rekel presided at the pianoforte, and performed a sonata—"G Allegro, Andante" (by Beethoven), and an impromptu on Scottish airs, composed by the talented pianiste himself. Excellent as these portions of the concert were, and cordial as was the reception justly given to the vocal and instrumental performances of Messrs. Farley and Rekel, the principal attention of the audience was naturally centred upon the wondrous performances of the lady violinist, Mademoiselle Jenny Claus, and upon the sweet, artistic vocalisation of Mademoiselle Jeanne Rekel, whose admirable style of singing was enthusiastically appreciated by all. Mademoiselle J. Claus first played a violin solo (Ballade and Polonaise) by Vieuxtemps, which at once manifested, to those who had never heard her before, the absolute mastery she has achieved over the instrument she has chosen for her great musical talent. In her second violin solo, a "Lullaby" by Reber, Mademoiselle Claus played that simple but exquisite piece throughout in exact imitation of the vielle; producing most striking and beautiful effects, which were received with a well-deserved burst of applause. Recalled, the lady executed a totally different piece of music in marked and brilliant contrast to the "Berceux" which had proved to be such a success. In the second part the "Elegie" (Ernst) was equally striking; the last violin solo (by Alard) from the "Daughter of the Regiment," being followed by loud and long continued marks of approbation. Mademoiselle Jeanne Rekel's first vocal performance (Bellini's aria, "Come per me sereno") was one of the very best things of the evening. This cantatrice also sang with great sweetness, distinctness, and ability an Irish melody and an English song, and Allen's song "The Goat Bells." The concert concluded with a clever comic song by Mr. Farley. It is announced that the next concert of the series is to take place on the 1st of May.

Concert at the Exhibition Building.—The announcement of a change of programme for last night's concert at the Exhibition Building caused a considerable number of the public to attend. Over 2500 persons paid at the gates for admission to the building and concert. A number of these were, fortunately for themselves, accommodated with chairs. As on previous occasions, the singers could not be heard to advantage, except by those who were within a short distance of the platform. Those who were in the galleries could hear much better than numbers who were below. An opening overture by the band was very well rendered. This was followed by the fine operatic chorus "Behold how brightly breaks the morning," in which the solo was undertaken by Mr. Skinner. Mr. Andrew Fairfax and Mr. Ackland then gave, "The moon hath raised her lamp," which was very effectively rendered. The same gentlemen assisted by Mr. Lascelles, gave the trio "Wine, wine," from the Rose of Castille. Miss Lambert was successful in her rendering of a laughing song composed by Auber. The first part of the programme concluded with the finale from the opera of Martha, which was so well given that it was loudly applauded. Chief among the selections in the second part were the Wood Nymph's Call (Miss Wiseman); the Misereri, from Trovatore (full choir); the Island of the Free (Mr. H. Ackland); the Will of the Wisp (Mr. A. Fairfax)—all of which were very effectively sung. The Celebration Ode was repeated, and the National Anthem brought the proceedings to a close. Beside the item referred to at the beginning of this paragraph, the Band rehearsed several other popular selections of music.

Warwick v. University.—The first elevens of these clubs met at the Albert Ground on Saturday, for the purpose of playing a one-day's match; but, in consequence of the lack of omnibus accommodation, play did not commence until a late hour. The University went first to the wickets, and were disposed of for 112 runs, Beard being the top score, with 26 runs to his name; and R. Teece played a very good innings for 17. The Warwicks lost but one wicket when time was called for a total of 50 runs—D. Gregory contributing 37 of these, obtained by excellent play. E. Sheridan also batted nicely. The following are the scores:—

| University. | |

THE LATE FIRE IN WOOLLOOMOOLOO.

CORONER'S INQUEST.

YESTERDAY forenoon the City Coroner held, at his office in Hyde Park, an inquest respecting the origin of the late fire at Messrs. Seamer and Robertson's mill, Woolloomooloo, after the premises had been viewed by the jury.

The following evidence was taken:—

William Robertson deposed: I am a timber merchant, and am in partnership with Mr. Seamer; we carried on the business as timber merchants, on premises situated in Woolloomooloo, bounded by Dowling-street on the west, Duke-street on the east, Wharf-street on the south, and Elliott's Wharf on the north; a portion of the wall facing Duke-street was of brick; while the remainder facing that street was of wood and iron; the south end was formed of weatherboards; the lower floor facing Dowling-street was open; the frontage of the two upper floors consisted of weatherboards; the whole was covered with iron; the bottom portion of the northern end was open; the building had three floors; it was surrounded by an open batten fence all along the Dowling-street front; there were no fences on the northern and eastern ends; the northern end of the building abutted on Elliott's; the fence was about six feet high; there was a gate at the northern end of the Duke-street side; there was a gate leading from Dowling-street which was the ordinary means of ingress and egress from the premises; there was a door leading from the stock-hole to Duke-street; the engine was in the south-east corner of the building; on Saturday, the 19th April, 1873, the premises were closed about twenty minutes or half-past 1 o'clock; I believe Henry Newton fastened up the premises; we left together or within a few minutes of each other; the only fire to my knowledge on the premises that day was the fire at the engine; it was the practice and duty of the stoker to rake out the fire and extinguish it on Saturdays, but I cannot say whether he did so or not on that Saturday; being ill and anxious to get home, I did not before closing the premises go round to see whether the stoker had extinguished the fire or not; we left by the Dowling-street entrance; we drew the door after us, and got over the fence as was our custom; I cannot say whether the Duke-street entrance was closed when I left; I do not recollect whether my partner (Mr. Seamer) was on the premises that day; our stock on that day on the premises consisted of a lot of door sashes and joiner's work generally, as well as a quantity of timber; this stock, exclusive of the machinery and plant was worth from £3000 to £3500; no portion of the stock or the machinery was insured; their destruction by fire has been a total loss to me; I was called the same night (19th April) about 11 o'clock, and in consequence of information I then received I proceeded to the premises and found that they were on fire; the flames were confined to the two top floors right through; the fire had not reached the ground floor; I entered the premises by the Dowling-street entrance and proceeded towards some sashes on the ground-floor about the centre, and nearer the Dowling-street than the Duke-street side; I did not enter the building; I only went up to it; I could see the sashes from my position; they were not on fire; there was no fire on the ground-floor; I did not enter as the floor above was in flames, and I was apprehensive that it would fall; it did so not long afterwards; I saw no fire on the ground-floor; the engine was on the same floor, and I did not see any fire about it; on my arrival I could see that the mill could not be saved; the engines came up some time after my arrival, and their efforts to hinder the progress of the fire were fruitless, and the premises were destroyed, together with the stock they contained; I cannot give the jury any idea as to the origin of the fire; no one lived on the premises, and there was no one in charge of them; on the ground-floor, in the stock-hole, there was a small quantity of chips; cannot say whether there was any fire between the fly-wheel and the wall against which the boiler rested; the coals were kept towards the wharf street front; there was no tow about the place that I know of; a man named James Cook was both stoker and engine-driver; I value my machinery at £1000 or £1200.

By jury: The building was not my property; it belonged to the Liverpool and London and Globe Insurance Office; only the stock and machinery were mine; we had no insurance on that building, but whether it was insured or not I cannot say; the buildings were in a very dilapidated condition; my lease said, in reference to the building, that I was to keep it in the condition in which it was when I entered—reasonable tear and wear allowed; the building was so dilapidated that we did not think it would last through our lease, which had 18 months to run; we had been in it 5½ years; we had to repair it to keep it up; it was not in my opinion, though large, worth £200; I had no interest in the destruction of the building; it was all a loss to us; we were paying £143 per annum for the building and ground; I do not recollect having mentioned the state of the building to the Insurance Office.

By Coroner: I think about £200 worth of timber has been saved.

By jury: There were two glass windows fronting Duke-street, between the chimney and Wharf-street; the glass was broken; they were on the first floor; there were two small louvres frames or windows, for the purpose of ventilation, on the ground floor; I have put glass in the windows, but they were always broken by boys; the first floor windows, which had the glass out of the frames, were about 8 feet from the street; while the louvres were on a level with the street; there were shavings on the first floor.

John Oglesby deposed: I am a carter residing at 18, Duke-street, Woolloomooloo; I knew the premises occupied by Messrs. Seamer and Robertson, and situated between Wharf, Dowling, and Duke streets; I lived in the fourth house from the mill; I had been on the premises several times, and knew where the engine was situated—at the corner of Duke and Wharf streets; at a quarter to 11 o'clock on Saturday, the 19th instant, I went into my verandah to close it before going to bed, and saw smoke issuing from the westward of the chimney of the mill; the smoke seemed to come from the yard beyond the shed; a light breeze sprang up from the south-west immediately afterwards, and drove the smoke across Duke-street, and I then knew there was a fire from the smoke; I then went to the corner of Duke and Wharf streets, over the engine-room to convince myself, and saw flames coming through between the fly wheel and the boiler; I saw this through the second window to the south, which was above the street, to the southward of the chimney; the boiler and the fly-wheel were on the ground floor; I saw the flames shooting up to the first floor from the space between them, or from the space where I knew them to be; the fire was confined to that end of the building when I first saw it; I saw no person about at the time; I got home at 6 o'clock that evening, and was reading till shortly before 11 o'clock; I did not hear any noise outside; I knocked up William Richardson who lived immediately opposite where the fire was; he was not in; I gave the alarm all over the neighbourhood; I cannot say who was the first to see the fire after me; the Williamses came out three minutes after I first saw the fire; I saved Mr. J. G. Catley's horses from their stable after I had alarmed the neighbours; within ten minutes the whole of the building was in flames; I had not heard boys letting off crackers that night.

By jury: I did not see any fire or reflection of fire through the louvres; I saw the flames from the windows above them; I did not see any fire over the stock-hole; I did not look through the louvres, but if there had been fire I must have observed it as I passed going to Richardson's.

By Coroner: I could not absolutely see the first floor, but I thought the flames came straight up from the ground floor; yes, I did see the flames coming through the first floor from the rise of the hill which overlooked the first floor window.

Peter Brownlie deposed: I am a saw-sharpener and live at 25, Duke-street, Woolloomooloo; I remember the night of the fire at Seamer and Robertson's; I went to the fire about three minutes after I heard the alarm, and about 11 o'clock I entered the premises by going over the Dowling-street fence, as the gate was closed; I was the first in the yard; the ground floor was on a level with Dowling-street, and on it were the boiler and engine; the premises were on fire when I entered the ground floor; there was no fire that I could see on the ground floor; I went along the ground floor as far as the planing-machine, from which I could see there was no fire about the engine or boiler; I could not see any fire above me on the ground floor; a framework which surrounded the engine for its protection was not on fire; the southern end of the building, including the first floor and the roof, was on fire when I first went out, but the flames had not reached the ground floor, as far as I could see.

By jury: I heard some crackers being fired on that Saturday night from my residence—up to the time I went to bed, at 10 o'clock; it was a usual practice for boys to let off crackers in the neighbourhood about this time of the year; there was lightning on Saturday night.

James Cook deposed: I was fireman at Seamer and Robertson's, and resided in Kent-street; I was employed at the mill which has been destroyed, as stoker; my duties were to attend to the fire and look after the engine, which was at work on Saturday, the 19th; we closed that day at 1 o'clock; at half-past 12 o'clock I let the steam and fire go down, and at 1 o'clock I raked my fire all out from the furnace, and put water on the ashes, which I raked all over to see that the fire was extinguished; I did this on Saturday, the 19th instant; there was no other fire on the premises; there was a blacksmith's shop close by, but I cannot say whether any men were at work in it on Saturday; there was no tow lying about; I kept it in a cupboard till used, and then I threw it into the street; there were some shavings on the ground floor, 6 or 7 feet away from the boiler.

By jury: I went round the building, according to habit, between half-past 6 o'clock and 7 o'clock, and went on the top of the boiler to see if there was any fire; I opened the bar from the outside; I went on the boiler to see whether there were any shavings there; as it was dark, I got a lamp from the engine-room, which was on the ground floor, between the fly-wheel and the boiler.

By Coroner: I lit the lamp with a wax match, and then blew it out and stamped it with my foot; I watered the bricks of the boiler, as was my custom, and also threw water on the floor and shavings; I kept shavings and chips on the ground floor to assist in "firing up"; I saw no trace of fire at that time, nor did I smell any; I was alone at the time; the lamp was an oil one.

Brownlie recalled: I am also employed by Messrs. Seamer and Robertson as jobbing blacksmith in a shop I have for that purpose; I had no fire in the shop on Saturday, the 19th, nor did any other person work there.

Richard Meyers deposed: I reside at 3, Harnett-street, near Duke-street; I remember the night of the fire; I was aroused by the alarm about 11 o'clock, and on looking out I saw the mill on fire, and flames coming out of the two windows facing Duke-street, and south of the chimney; immediately after the fire extended north; the fire had not caught the roof when I first saw it; the wind was from the south-west; before going to bed, about half-past 9 o'clock, I heard fireworks—I think crackers included—being discharged in Duke-street; I made some observations about them at the time.

The Coroner here adjourned the inquest. He regretted that he had to do so, but a man had been lying dead at Five Dock since Saturday, and he had to hold an inquest on the body that afternoon. He had expected to finish it without adjournment, but he was compelled to adjourn it to Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

INTERCOLONIAL EXHIBITION.

SIXTH DAY.

NOTWITHSTANDING that the Exhibition had been open for nearly a week, and been attended by many thousands of persons, the attendance yesterday was very large. The special trains from the south and west continue to bring up crowds of visitors. Even on Saturday night many hundreds of persons came to the city by train both from Goulburn and Bathurst, as well as intermediate stations. Indeed the passenger traffic has been so great that the ordinary rolling stock has been found insufficient, and cattle and sheep pens have been gladly availed of by people anxious to see the present exhibition, and pay a visit to the city. The chief attraction in the grounds yesterday was the sale of cattle. Hundreds of persons congregated round the cattle ring and watched with great interest the disposal of the prize cattle, at prices which astonished those who are not au fait in cattle breeding. The interior of the building remains in pretty much the same state as it was in last week. Some further additions have been made to the horticultural display. Messrs. Baptist and Sons sent yesterday twenty-four varieties of cut chrysanthemums, in fine condition, and of the most beautiful colours. They were much admired. Messrs. J. and W. Gelding also sent a fresh lot of cut flowers—double geraniums, chrysanthemums, rhododendrons, &c. The German band was in attendance all day. In the evening there was a repetition of the concerts, which proved so very entertaining and attractive last week.

The exhibition will remain open all the week, and it would seem that there will be no lack of novelties, for by the arrivals of Saturday, Sunday, and yesterday, so large a number of exhibits have been received for the exhibition from the neighbouring colonies, that some difficulty is experienced in finding space for them. Mr. Knight, the secretary for the Melbourne Exhibition Committee, states that if he were allowed to have the building he could fairly fill it with the new exhibits which have arrived and are expected to arrive.

In the general report respecting the machines and implements, mention of a very useful machine was omitted. It is Martin's reaping machine, which has been brought from Gawler, South Australia, where the manufacture of these machines is largely carried on. It has been awarded first prize by the judges; in fact, there is no other machine on the ground which could well compete with it. Worked by three horses on level land, it can reap and thrash from eight to twelve acres of wheat per day. It not only cuts down the wheat, but by a simultaneous movement it takes off the ears from the stalks, and throws them into a huge drum. The stalks are left on the field. The drum can contain from ten to twelve bushels of grain, according to the crop. Only one man is required to attend to the machine and horses. These machines are said to be universally used in South Australia. Although it is a very ingenious and beautiful piece of mechanism, there is no complication about its parts, and it can readily be worked even by a stranger.

PRODUCTS RAW AND MANUFACTURED.

The greater number of articles in this section have already been mentioned. There are a few others remaining to be noticed, and deservedly worthy of inspection. The bricks, drain pipes, tiles, &c., from the establishment of Messrs. Goodlet and Smith, appear to be of excellent manufacture. They will be found near to a collection of similar exhibits from the establishment of Mr. A. T. Holroyd, Parramatta, on the north-eastern side of the building. Messrs. Playford, Brothers, and Co., Marrickville, exhibit a large variety of articles, manufactured from fireclay, such as oven tiles, fire holes, fire clay; also culvert-blocks, bricks, and other such like articles. A patent gold-saving machine, shown by Messrs. Lutton and Son, Phoenix Foundry, Hay-street, has attracted attention from those interested in the use of such machinery. Amongst the exhibitors of soap, the name of Mr. S. Dickson, Waverley, was accidentally omitted, also the names of Messrs. Hutchins and Uppold, Newcastle. Mr. W. Moore, of Elizabeth-street, exhibits a quantity of his ointment; and baking powder is shown by Mr. A. Kerr, of Goulburn. Mr. T. C. Hewitt, of Grafton, shows some very fine samples of beef and mutton tallow, and neatsfoot oil. In class 524, for raw products and forest industries, in addition to the articles already mentioned, fishing rods are shown by Mr. G. Gunter, of Muswellbrook, and Mr. S. Gunter of the Glebe. Two collections of stuffed birds, exhibited by Mr. R. Howe, of Newcastle, may be seen at the southern end of the gallery. And at the north-eastern end of the building, may be seen a huge log of cedar, about 4½ feet square, which was forwarded to the Exhibition by Mr. R. Stewart, of Bathurst-street. It was grown on the Nanbucera River. Mr. J. H. Byrne, of the Liverpool Paper Works, was awarded first prize for a collection of fibre from the maize plant, used in the manufacture of paper. Mr. T. Wearne's fibre and half fibre, for paper making, was highly commended. Mr. A. Forsyth, of the Australian Rope Works, carried off first prize for splendid samples of rope, made from Manila hemp and New Zealand flax. Messrs. Wolfe and Gorrick, West Maitland, were awarded a first prize for a half-tierce of colonial tobacco. Mr. Saywell's tobacco was highly commended; and Messrs. Barnett and Co. have obtained first prize for tobacco—for both quality and workmanship.

Amongst the chemical and pharmaceutical products will be found exhibits of some very valuable articles in the Ceylon section, comprising—cinnamon oil, distilled from the bark of the cinnamon tree; lemon grass oil, distilled from lemon grass; best cocoanut oil, a sample of oil well clarified; cocoanut oil, a sample in its common state; citwuilla oil, distilled from citwuilla leaves; castor oil, extracted from the seeds of castor oil plant; dammer oil, distilled from dammer (it is principally used in blackening the letters written on ola in combination with lampblack); domba oil, made from the seed of the domba tree, and used as medicine in relieving pains and swellings of cattle; gingelly oil, or sexamum oil, used as olive oil by Ceylonese, and also in the preparation of medicinal oils; margosa oil, of extremely bitter taste, and generally used in mercurial purposes. From the same country are a number of very beautiful woods, of remarkably handsome grain and colour, which may be enumerated as follows:—Anguru mederia wood, Diospyros nirsuta, a species of calamandar, somewhat darker than the genuine kind; calamandar wood, Diospyros nirsuta, a scarce and beautiful sort of wood, most valuable for ornamental purposes; cocoanut wood, Cocos nucifera, used for making furniture and rafters for houses; delwood, Artocarpus pubescens, used for making boats and buildings; datewood, the wood of the Ceylon date tree—very beautiful if the tree is very old (the sample sent is from a tender tree); ebony, Diospyros, a fine black wood, used for furniture; flowered satin wood, Chloroxylon Surentenia, used for furniture, and next to calamandar; halmillile wood, Birrya ammonia, used for casks, tubs, and waggons, &c.; hackwood, used for spokes of cart wheels, door posts, &c.; Homederiu wood, inferior kind of calamandar wood, used for furniture; Jack wood; Artocarpus integrefolia, used for all kinds of furniture and buildings, &c; Kettakela wool, Bridelia spinosa, used for buildings; Kittul wood, Neperia curyota, used for rafters and window bars; Milille wood, Vetue netissima, used for water-casks, paddle-boats, and cart-wheels; Naa, or Ironwood, Mesua nagratra, used for bridges and buildings; Naa Mendora wood, Vateria sp., used for bridges and buildings; Nadoon wood, Dalbergia Lamuglaria, used for buildings and furniture; Palmyra wood, Borassin Flabelli Formis, used for rafters and roofers—ancient books were made of its leaves; Sapan wood red dye wood, used for making red dye, and also for making furniture; Satin wood, Chloroxylon surentinia, used for furniture; Sooria wood (Persian) Sheepesia populanea, admirable for carriages, hackories, gun-stocks, &c.; Striped ebony, Diopyros, black wood with white stripes, used for furniture; Tamarind wood, Tamarindus indicus, used for oil presses, furniture, and buildings; Teak wood, Secténa grandis, used for carts, waggons, bridges, buildings, &c.; Waa wood (Aremene). Cassia timorensis, used for anchors and buildings.

MINERALS.

COAL.

Mr. John Mackenzie, F.G.S., the Government Examiner of Coal-fields, has taken a great amount of trouble to exemplify our coal-fields in the most practical manner possible. He exhibits first of all a map or plan of the colony showing the extent of our New South Wales coal-fields, in so far as they have been examined by the exhibitor personally. With reference to this he says, in the catalogue, that the area of this coal-field, known to himself, "is 15,419 square miles, or 9,868,160 statute acres. One of the seams of coal, 8 feet in thickness under this area should, after allowing one-third for loss and waste in getting, &c., yield 84,208,298,667 tons, which, at the present production of about 1,000,000 tons per annum in New South Wales, would last about 84,208 years; and at the present production of Great Britain, 112,000,000 tons per annum, our 8 feet seam of coal would last about 751 years." On the plan the area of the coal-field has been coloured pink, whilst the outcrop of the upper and lower coal measures, where traced by Mr. Mackenzie, has been coloured a dark blue. In addition to this there are letters marked on the plan showing where the vertical sections of the upper coal measures have been taken. These sections surround the plan, forming, when mounted, one large sheet. There are two sections of the northern, two of the western, and five of the southern upper coal measures; and sections of the lower coal measures are now being prepared. These sections show the various seams of coal which have been traced in the upper coal measures, with the thickness of each of their vertical distances apart, at the spots where the sections were taken. They all commence at the uppermost seam of coal that has been found to be workable, which seams have all been found to underlie the Rev. W. B. Clark's Great Wianamatta shale beds, and they are carried down to the point where the indications of reaching the lower coal measures first commence.

In addition is exhibited a general vertical section of the upper and lower coal measures of New South Wales, the joint production of the Rev. W. B. Clarke and Mr. Mackenzie, so far back as 1863. This shows the various seams, some thirty in number, with the intervening strata, and very elaborate side notes in relation not only to the strata, but the fossil flora and fauna contained in them.

There is also a longitudinal section of the large coal seam at the Coal Cliff, near Bulli, made also in 1863, by Mr. Mackenzie, and showing the outcrop of the seam about 40 feet above sea level. A vertical section of the same seam accompanies it, showing the various strata for a depth of 1000 feet, with a thick bed of clay iron ore overlying the seam.

In connection with this plan, and these sections, Mr. Mackenzie exhibits a very fine collection of fossil plants which are alone found in the strata connected with the upper coal measures; and also a collection of fossil plants and shells taken from the strata lying above, below, and between the lower coal measures of the colony. These exemplify the various strata lying between the various coal seams in the north, west, and south of the colony. A case of specimens, from Wingee, contains a number of very interesting fossils. There are also two large slabs showing some very beautifully marked specimens of the fossil flora—the Glossopteris and the Sphenopteris. Another case contains a collection for the Government of the lower carboniferous fossils, in great variety; and a sixth case contains a very choice assortment of fossils, taken from fifty yards above Russell's cannel seam at Stony Creek.

We have next a variety of samples of coal, cannel, and petroleum oil shales, all labelled with the locality from which they came, with the position and thickness of the seam from which they were taken, the quality of the coal, its specific gravity, and the use to which it is best adapted. Cases similar to this and the preceding, showing samples of the coal from the different seams, are being prepared by Mr. Mackenzie for the museum, and for the leading schools of arts, and other public institutions, accompanied by copies of the plan and sections we have first spoken of. A sample of coal from England was looked at with great curiosity, as such a thing as English coal is hardly to be seen in the country at the present day. This coal cost 21s. per ton put on board the ship in London. The Newcastle coal is of much lighter specific gravity, and more bituminous, and yet so great was English prejudice in the mind of the captain's lady, that she insisted upon burning English coal in her stove, although she had the chance of using a superior article from Newcastle.

Mr. Mackenzie has also a very good collection of English fossils and minerals, as well as of samples from the 2-foot seam of the lower coal measures at Ulladulla, with a very fine collection of fossils (flora and fauna) from the same spot.

THE OIL AND SHALE COMPANY.

As usual, the Oil and Shale Company, as they have done at every Exhibition yet held in Sydney, have gone to some trouble and expense in erecting a trophy that should be worthy of the great industry they represent, that of the production of kerosene oil. The base of their pyramidal trophy is composed, as one would of course imagine, of samples of the native shale, or rather cannel, that is produced from their mines, and blocks of the same valuable material are carried up to the height of the pyramid some eight or nine feet. At intervals there are shelves on which are placed sample bottles of the oil produced by them, whilst by way of foil or set-off, occasional bottles of the crude oil intervene by way of showing the public what the beautifully clear and bright oil was before it was manipulated by the hand of science.

NEWCASTLE.

The Australian Agricultural Company are the only exhibitors of coal from our great northern coal-field, but they exhibit a very fine block of the pure mineral from their best seam, though no information as to its specific gravity, &c., is afforded through the catalogue.

LITHGOW.

Mr. Thomas Brown, M.L.A., sends a very good sample of steam coal from his Esk Bank Colliery, and is the only representative of the great Bowenfels coal seam.

VICTORIA.

Mr. Brough Smyth, Under Secretary for Mines, exhibits five specimens of coal from Haddon Range, from Deep Creek, from Western Port, from Strezlecki Range, and from Cape Paterson. Two of the samples appear to be of very good quality. Four specimens of lignite are also of considerable interest.

WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

This colony sends a sample of shale from the Irwin coal seam in the Victoria district; but, as its name implies, it is only an incipient coal, and will require to improve in quality before it will become of any commercial value.

SALT.

In this mineral, Western Australia is the only exhibitor; but her collection in this respect is very complete. The whole of the exhibits come from the Government Salt-works, on the salt lakes on Rottnest Island. They consist of four fine blocks of salt, weighing nearly half-a-hundredweight each; a specimen of fine salt, evaporated at 226° Fahrenheit; of ordinary salt, evaporated at 210° Fahrenheit; of coarser salt, evaporated at the same temperature; and of coarse salt, evaporated at 140° Fahrenheit. A sample of the salt from the above salt-works was forwarded for analysis to Mr. W. Johnson, the Government analyst at Melbourne, in 1871, who certified that it contained in 100 parts: Pure chloride of sodium, 96·9; chloride of magnesium and calcium, 1·6; sulphates, traces; moisture, 2·5.

In addition to the salt itself are forwarded bottles containing samples of the salt water from which the salt is made, and of mother water remaining in the evaporating pans after the pure chloride of sodium is withdrawn; with samples of the impurities deposited in the settling tanks of the salt-works, and of Bay salt also from the island. The following extract from the report on the salt-works may not be without interest:—"Rottnest Island, situated about ten miles from Fremantle, at the entrance of the port, and on which is situated the penal establishment for the native prisoners (who are working on a reproductive farm), contains several salt lakes, two of them so shallow that nearly every year a large quantity of Bay salt is collected from them; but this salt contains too many impurities to be of general use, principally sulphate of lime, of magnesia, and muriate of magnesia. The Salt Works are situated in a central position of the lakes, which in winter are all united, but in summer are divided from each other by natural evaporation and drainage, each one representing in form the mouth of some extinct volcanic crater, some of which are very deep; one, it is said, could not be sounded with 60 fathoms of line. The bottom of the shallow lakes, near which the Salt Works have been established, is pumped into a large tank divided into two compartments, one of which contains some of the salt gathered from the lakes in summer; through it the water is made to pass so as to render the brine stronger, in the other the brine is purified of its lime and magnesia, &c., by means very easy and very cheap. The brine then, contains from 20 to 24 per cent. of chloride of sodium. (Beaumé Hydrometer); from the tank the brine is pumped into a boiler large enough to supply brine to the evaporating pans, in this boiler the brine can be again purified, and is heated long enough to cause the deposit of the sludges. From thence the brine is run into the evaporating pans, which are kept at a temperature varying from 210 degrees to 226 degrees Fahrenheit, depending on the quality of the salt which is required; care is taken to remove the scum as it appears; the salt being raked towards the cooler sides of the pans. When a sufficient quantity is formed, it is taken out and thrown into conical baskets, arranged in wooden frames near the pans, the drainage from the baskets flows into troughs, from whence it is carried back into the pans. The salt is completely dry, without artificial heat, in about three or four days, and then stored."

ABSTRACT OF SALES BY AUCTION THIS DAY.

The Northampton, from London, arrived this morning, with a general cargo, valued at £55,500.

The Windsor Castle cleared to-day for London, with 2076 bales wool, 339 slabs 29 blocks tin, 218 casks tin ore, 1239 ingots 71 pieces copper, 507 casks tallow, 128 packages antimony, 83 casks cocoanut oil, 880 cases meat.

The interim balance-sheet of the United Insurance Company shows that during the past six months the debit balance has been reduced from £11,749 to £7351, being a net profit of £4398 for the half-year.

At a meeting of creditors in the estate of Mr. Whitton, grocer, held this morning, it was resolved that an assignment should be made to Mr. J. Watson, M.L.A., and Mr. A. Smith.

The half yearly report of the Waratah Coal Company proves that a marked improvement has recently taken place in the prospects of colonial collieries. A dividend at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum was declared, and £1 per share of the capital is to be returned, thereby reducing the shares to £5 each.

Transactions in the Stock and Share market this morning were devoid of importance. Bank shares opened at last week's rates. Sales of City at 10¾, and New South Wales at 47¾ to 48. Steam shares in moderate demand at a slight reduction on sellers' quotations. United Insurance firmer, buyers at 9s. 9d. Debentures were more active; New South Wales Fives, due 1891, brought 107¼; ditto 1896, 108; City of Sydney, due 1879, 105½; ditto 1883, 109.

Our London telegram of Saturday says money is easier: but the position of the Bank of England inspires caution, and the discount rate remains at 4 per cent. Business in stocks restricted. New South Wales fives are quoted at 107, Victorian at 108½, ditto sixes (January and July) at 117¾, New Zealand Consolidated fives at 103¾, Queensland sixes at 111½, Union Bank shares at 43, Bank of South Australia at 33, London Chartered Bank at 23½, English, Scottish, and Australian Bank at 20½.

The Oriental Bank Corporation has declared a dividend at the rate of 12 per cent. per annum. At the wool sales the opening competition has been well maintained; washed descriptions are slightly lower; greasy sorts a halfpenny higher. Finest mutton tallow, £42 10s. to £44; medium, £41 to £42; inferior, £39 to £40. Fine beef, £41 to £42; medium; £40 to £41; inferior, £38 to £39. Hides unaltered. Sydney cocoanut oil, £30 to £32; sperm held for £95. All descriptions of copper quiet at late quotations. Fine tin active at £137 to £140. Wheat firmer.

In the import markets there is very little disposition to do business. Recent failures have unsettled matters very much, and the very heavy arrivals from England within the last few days will not help to improve the market. Candles are still in demand, sales at 10¾d. to 11d.; currants are improving, some holders ask 5¼d. to 5½d. Coarse Liverpool salt selling freely at £4 12s. 6d.; rock dull at £4 15s. At auction, this morning Messrs. Stubbs and Co. offered a shipment of sugar, ex Noemi, and other goods, without effecting any sales worth mentioning. They hold another sale to-morrow.

Messrs. Richardson and Wrench sold by auction, to-day, 380 bags tin ore, about 20 tons, which realised from £30 10s. to £79 12s. 6d. per ton, according to assay; also 5 tons smelted tin, at £134 per ton.

Messrs. Bradley, Newton, and Lamb will sell by auction, to-morrow, a quantity of tin ore and fine tin.

Messrs. Scott and Co., writing on November 5th, furnish us with the following intelligence respecting the Mauritius markets:—

Owing to the uninterruptedly favourable character of the weather, the canes for next crop are very luxuriant; but we have still before us a month of the hurricane season. Of the present crop the quantity shipped and in course of shipment amounts to nearly 115,000 tons, and it is doubtful if so much as 10,000 tons will remain for shipment. Greys: In grey sugars the few small purchases made have been at about former rates, but they have not been of sufficient importance to establish prices. Considerable transactions have, however, been made in grey syrups at about 3.50 dollars to 4 dollars per 100 lbs. for lower than No. 7; Dutch Standard, 4.25 dollars for No. 8, 4.65 dollars for No. 9, and 4.85 dollars to 5 dollars for No. 10. Whites and Yellows: A few small purchases have been made to complete cargoes at about 8 dollars to 8.15 dollars per 100 lbs. for fine to finest whites, and 7 dollars to 7.25 dollars for fine to finest yellows. Wheat: Another month has passed without any importations, and there is now none of any description in first hands. First arrivals should sell well. In the present state of the market quotations cannot be given. Flour: No importations, and there is now almost none in first hands. Good Australian is nominally worth 5 dollars per 100 lbs. Oats: Imported 940 bags from Calcutta. Prices are rather firmer, and quotations now are Cape 2.75 dollars, full Australian 2.50 dollars, and ordinary Australian and Indian 2.25 dollars per 100 lbs. Bran: There is none on the market, and the retail price has gone up to 5 dollars per 100 lbs. One of the millers has just sold 200 bags at 4.50 dollars per 100 lbs. Beef: Scarce; Australian and Cape, worth 25.00 dollars per cask (300 lbs.); American, 15.00 per cask (200 lbs.). Pork: Scarce; Irish, per cask (200 lbs.), 22.00 to 24.00 dollars; (100 lbs.), 14.00 dollars; Nantes, per cask (90 lbs.), 18 00 dollars. Tallow: Refined European, none; 16.00 dollars per 100 lbs.; Cape and Australian, neglected, 10.00 dollars to 10.50 dollars per 100 lbs. Lard: Over supplied; Indian and American, 18,00 per 100 lbs.; French, 22.00 to 26.00 dollars per 100 lbs. according to size of package, the smaller preferred. Dates: None; last sale 3.75 dollars per 100 lbs. in bond. Coals: West Hartley may be worth 10 00 dollars, and Australian 8.00 dollars per ton; Scotch coal 8.00 dollars per ton; patent fuel, 16.00 dollars per ton.

The Adelaide Observer of the 19th reports:—

During the whole of the week wheat has remained exceedingly firm, but during the past day or two the market has hardened very considerably, and a serious advance has to be registered in quotations. For several days 5s 2d was the only price for delivery at the Port, but yesterday and to-day three 25,000-bushel lots changed hands at rates ranging from 5s 2d to 5s 3½d. Altogether something like 100,000 bushels have been sold, and we may quote the market as very firm at 5s 3½d to 5s 4d per bushel at the Port. For town lots 5s has been given, and perhaps a penny more can now be obtained. A parcel of 50 tons of country flour has been quitted at £11 17s 6d per ton, but best brands are worth £12. Town flour is valued at £12 10s to £12 15s. During last week 6040 tons of breadstuffs were shipped from the province. This brings our exportation for the year up to 84,000 tons. There has been an active demand for all sorts of other cereals, and sales have been made at the following quotations:—Bran, 1s; pollard, 1s 2d to 1s 3d; white oats, 3s 9d to 4s; Cape oats, 4s 6d to 5s; Cape barley, 3s 9d to 4s 9d; English ditto, 4s 6d to 5s 6d per bushel. There has been very little doing this week in the way of speculation in general merchandise. There has been a fair demand for home consumption, but we have no large purchases to report. Cornsacks are dull at 13s. Quarter sardines have been placed at 7s 9d. A fair inquiry continues for galvanized iron and fencing wire, and full rates are obtained for any purchases effected. To-day a variety of imported goods were auctioned, and we give below particulars of the sale.

MINING.

MONDAY EVENING.

THE Share market does not yet present any indications of recovering from the stagnation produced by the operations of plungers and jobbers. To those who have shares in good mines and can afford to hold them as investments, it does not matter how few sales there are; but upon progressive mines and new undertakings the present aspect of the market is very prejudicial. In Gold, almost every sale reported to-day shows a decline. Beyers and Holtermans have fallen to 28s.—sellers at that price. Browns sold at 11s., and held for 12s 6d. Carroll Beards went at 53s to 52s. 6d., and offered at the lower rate. Sales of Fischer Beards at 18s. 3d. to 18s. Krohmans were quitted at 53s., Rapps at 17s 6d. to 18s., and Williams at par to 3d. premium. Victorian mines quiet. Hustlers sold at 8¼. Copper flat sellers of Peak Downs at 68s.

The first parcel of ore of the Cootralantra copper mine arrived on Saturday from Eden. The shipment consists of 13 tons, and will be forwarded to England to be tested prior to the erection of smelting works at the mine.

Uncle Tom G. M. Co.—The mining manager reports—"I took up three buckets full of specimens on Saturday. The stone in the face shows very good gold, quite as good as any that was taken to Sydney. I am extending the face, and the pyrites keep going in as yet. There are 25 tons of seconds at the surface, besides the good stone. The machinery is working well. We are going on sinking again this week."

The Bathurst G. M. Co.—The mining manager reports, under date 25th April,—"I am very happy to inform you that I am on some excellent stone in the stoping to the north of the L shaft in the 380-feet level, though it is very narrow, being only 4 inches thick. I went down yesterday morning early and got out about half-a-yard of it that I had ordered to be kept below during the night, and as I was putting on the tributers' stone I crushed it before washing out, and estimate it gave about 20 oz. of gold. I am using every endeavour to get as many faces on it as possible, and assume at a fair calculation (now being pretty well acquainted with the stone) that all quartz I get from this place will yield from 6 to 10 oz. to the ton. Of course I cannot say how long it may last, but I am this morning 12 feet through it, and still the good stone keeps in the face. I hope I have the whole 200 feet above me before touching the old ground, of the same quality. The other faces in the shaft are all very narrow, but getting better in quality as we go north. The tributors have got no stone out this week, and have given up, the old ground they were working having closed in with them."

No. 1. Prospecting Area, Dalmorton, Little River.—The mining manager reports that he has 40 tons stone at grass. Several gentlemen inspected the quartz, and they agreed that it is the best gold-bearing stone yet seen in the Clarence district. The reef is getting larger in the stopes, and consequently a greater quantity can be raised weekly, and crushing will take place immediately. The shaft has been timbered from bottom to top, and altogether the claim looks second to none on Perseverance Hill.

Pride of the Turon G. M. Co.—Mining manager reports: "Shaft down 45 feet perpendicular, having passed through one vein dipping to the eastward at 36 feet; expect to cut gold-bearing vein of Sailor Prince before completion of contract."

Messrs. Melhado and Curtis report the following dividends from some of the Victorian mines:—Great Extended Hustler's Co. 1308 oz., and dividend of 3s. 6d. for fortnight; Hustler's Pups 421 oz. amalgam for week, Hand and Bands 86 oz., Park's 67 oz. A dividend of £1 per share has been declared in New North Clunes Co. The dividend of the Hustler's Pups is now at our office.

Boolboonda Copper M. Co.—The second half-yearly meeting of shareholders was held at the office to-day, when directors' report and balance-sheet were unanimously adopted.

Wolca Copper M. Co.—The second half-yearly meeting of shareholders was held at the office to-day, when the directors' report and balance-sheet were adopted unanimously.

The mining manager of the Ajax Amalgamated G. M. Co. reports, under date 26th April:—"We have now got into settled country; the vein is getting quite solid, encased with fine slate walls—not better slate in this district. This slate came in during the last three feet of sinking. The vein is now eight inches thick, solid, and showing nice coarse gold and a great amount of mundic."

MELBOURNE LIVE STOCK REPORT.

[RICHARD GIBSON AND CO.]

Melbourne, April 23.

FAT CATTLE.—1450 entered, about 900 sold to-day; prices ruled firmer for best qualities, but middling and inferior pens were duller of sale than usual; a draft of the VOY cattle from Boyong station, making the top price of the day for northern lots, viz. £9 10s for bullocks and £7 10s for cows. We quote—Best bullocks, £11 to £12 10s; good ditto, £9 to £10; middling, £7 10s to £8; inferior, £6 upwards; best cows, £7 10s to £8 10s; medium, £6 10s to £6 10s; inferior, £4 15s upwards. Our sales were—170 cows and bullocks for the executors of the late James M'Evoy, from Boyong station, as above; 130 ditto, half-fat, for Mr. G. H. Stevens, at £8 15s for bullocks, and £4 15s for cows; 23 culls at £2 17s 6d.

Fat Calves.—Only moderate supply forward, best calves ruling slightly higher. Our sales were—38 head for Mr. James Neal at 55s, and 13 for Messrs. Woodhouse, Power, and others, at 27s 6d to 45s.

Fat Sheep.—14,072 yarded, consisting principally of second qualities, with only one or two lots of prime amongst them, all of which latter description met a brisk sale at prices fully equal to last week, whilst medium and inferior ruled rather easier. In addition to the above supply there was a large number of very inferior sheep forward, which were cleared out by auction at prices ranging from 2s 9d to 6s. We quote: 60-lb. wethers, with good skins, at 15s 6d; 56-lb. ditto, 13s to 14s; 46-lb. ewes, from 10s to 11s; others, from 6s 6d to 9s 6d. We have sold—62 wethers (crossbreds) for the Hon. W. J. T. Clarke, Bald Hill, at from 19s to 22s 6d (these sheep were fed and fattened on a Scotch thistle paddock); 307 ewes for same owner, from Rock Bank, at 7s 3d to 9s 6d; 192 wethers for Mr. Thomas Hamilton, Glenpedder, at 13s 6d to 15s; and 1000 ditto for Messrs. Campbell, Brothers, Traralgon Park.

Fat Lambs.—850 forward, which sold at about 1s under last week's values. We sold—100 for Messrs. Gooch, Brothers, at 9s, 130 for Mr. W. H. Wood at 9s; 50 for Mr. L. Dugdale at 9s 6d, 36 for the Hon. W. J. T. Clarke, Bald Hill, at 9s 6d; and 7 for Mr T. Hamilton at 12s.

Store Stock.—For sheep late quotations are difficult to obtain, owing to depression in fat stock market. Cattle are still saleable at fair rates for suitable lots. We have this day sold 471 cows and bullocks from the Murrumbidgee, at £3 5s to £4 17s.

Stations.—Demand good, and satisfactory prices still obtainable for well-improved properties in favourite localities. We have this week sold by private contract, on account of Messrs. G. A. and P. Main, of Moolpar, the Liewah station, on the Edward and Wakool Rivers, Murrumbidgee district, New South Wales, together with 10,000 sheep, to Mr. Henry Creswick, of Melbourne.

FOR POSITIVE SALE.
PRAIRIE STATION,
Port Curtis District, Queensland.

20,000 SHEEP (more or less)
1400 HEAD OF CATTLE (more or less).

G. F. WANT has received instructions from Messrs. F. Morton and Co. to sell by public auction, at his Rooms, the Pastoral Exchange, 273, George-street, Sydney, on TUESDAY (THIS DAY), 29th April, 1873, at 12 o'clock prompt,
The above first-class Sheep and Cattle Station, comprising two blocks of richly-grassed country, viz., PRAIRIE, and MOUNT SCORIA,
which embrace an area of 235 square miles, well and permanently watered by the Kroombitt and Calleide Rivers, and is equi-distant from Rockhampton and Gladstone.

The stock as above mentioned have been carefully managed since the formation of the station, valuable and high-priced stud rams having been introduced amongst the sheep from the justly celebrated flocks of Messrs. Learmonth, Bayley, and Cox—a fact that in itself speaks for the deservedly high reputation the clip of wool bears in this and the London market. The flocks have also been culled annually. With regard to the cattle no expense or trouble has been spared in securing bulls of the most noted brands, and can be highly recommended as a quiet, choice, well-bred mixed herd.

The improvements embrace every requisite for the efficient management of a large establishment.
Stores, horses, &c., at a valuation.
Further information may be obtained of
THE PASTORAL EXCHANGE,
273, George-street, Sydney.

FIRST-CLASS CATTLE STATION.

PORT CURTIS DISTRICT, QUEENSLAND.

G. F. WANT has received instructions from W. T. Elliot, Esq., to sell by public auction, at his Rooms, the Pastoral Exchange, 273, George-street, Sydney, on TUESDAY, (THIS DAY), 29th April, 1873, at 12 o'clock prompt, situated in the Port Curtis District, Queensland within easy reach of the Rockhampton market, together with a very choice and well-bred herd of 7000 head of cattle (more or less).
THE TILPAL STATION,

The run consists of 380 square miles of good open and fattening country, and is permanently watered in the driest seasons. Its carrying capabilities being estimated at about 15,000 head.
No store stock have been disposed of for many years; the fattening properties of the run having enabled the owner to make ready sales of the cattle as they aged to the local markets.
The improvements, which are substantial, include every requisite for the economical working of the herd. One paddock alone embracing an area of 30 square miles.
Horses, stores, &c., to be taken at a valuation.
Further information may be obtained at the Pastoral Exchange, 173, George-street, Sydney.

WEEKLY SHARE SALE.
NOTICE.—The undersigned will hold their WEEKLY AUCTION SALE OF SHARES, at their Rooms, Pitt-street, on THURSDAY, at half-past 11 o'clock prompt.
Vendors desirous of disposing of their stock in this manner will please furnish particulars not later than WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, at 4 o'clock.

IMPORTANT SALE.
In the Estate of the late J. B. Jones, Esq.

1.—CITY MANSION and GROUNDS, DARLINGHURST.
EATON HOUSE, together with extensive Grounds, ONE ACRE and A QUARTER in extent, having 166¼ FEET FRONTAGE to WILLIAM-STREET NORTH, immediately opposite WARATAH, the residence and grounds of Geo. King, Esq.

2.—CASTLEREAGH-STREET SOUTH.
TWO SUBSTANTIAL DWELLING-HOUSES, Nos. 424 and 426, Castlereagh-street, on the east side, near Campbell-street.

3.—ELIZABETH-STREET and DEVONSHIRE-STREETS.
Corner Block of Land, at the junction of the above streets, subdivided into building allotments.

4.—CHARLES-STREET, PARRAMATTA-STREET.
Large Block of Land, 72 feet frontage.

5.—PYRMONT BRIDGE and PARRAMATTA ROADS.
CHOICE SUBURBAN SITE upwards of ONE ACRE, fronting the above roads, between DIDLISTON HOUSE, the residence of F. Cooper, Esq., and CHESTER LODGE. In one or two lots of half an acre each.

RICHARDSON and WRENCH have received instructions to sell by public auction, at the Rooms, Pitt-street, on MONDAY, 5th MAY,
At 11 o'clock,

LOT 1.—EATON HOUSE AND GROUNDS, DARLINGHURST.
This valuable city residence is most substantially built of stone, surrounded by wide verandahs, and contains wide hall, drawing-room, dining-room, library, butler's pantry on the ground-floor, and 4 bedrooms and dressing-room on the upper floor. The outbuildings are very extensive, comprising ranges of stabling for 8 horses, 2 large loose boxes with rooms over, double coach-house, store, laundry, and kitchen with range.
The GROUNDS contain an area of about ONE ACRE AND A QUARTER, having 166¼ FEET FRONTAGE TO UPPER WILLIAM-STREET NORTH, extending back UPWARDS OF 200 FEET to Roslyn-street, to which road they have a frontage of about 197 feet. They are divided from William-street by a new boarded fence, with handsome entrance gate, from which the house is approached by a good carriage drive. The garden is laid out and stocked with fine nature ornamental trees, which gracefully shade the premises, and ensure privacy to the residence. There are also a good kitchen garden, small paddock, fowl-yard, &c.
 This extensive city property on the heights of Darlinghurst is well worthy of attention. Irrespective of its value as a whole for a gentleman's residence, with extensive grounds in the most elevated, healthy, and popular portion of the city, it possesses peculiar advantages which should attract the attention of builders and speculators. The premises are erected fully 130 feet distant from the building line of William-street, and leaving a carriage entrance to the house, and about 1 acre of grounds, 160 feet of the William-street frontage could be sold in building allotments, and find ready purchasers at full rates.
CARDS to VIEW may be obtained on application at the Rooms.

LOT 2.—CASTLEREAGH-STREET.
All that piece of land, having a frontage of 42 feet to Castlereagh-street, with a depth of 72 feet, on which are those substantial dwelling-houses Nos. 424 and 426, Castlereagh-street South, containing severally 5 rooms and kitchen and 4 rooms and kitchen, with yards, &c., having street entrance at the rear.
☞ This property is a compact well-situated freehold, close to Campbell-street and the Haymarket—a valuable and good letting position. The premises are in good tenantable order, and well and substantially built.

LOT 3.—ELIZABETH AND DEVONSHIRE STREETS.
Lot 1.—Corner allotment, 43 feet frontage to Elizabeth-street, 102 feet to Devonshire-street.
Lots 2 to 5 each have 17 feet to Elizabeth-street, with a depth of about 92 feet.
Lots 6 and 7 have each 16 feet frontage to Devonshire-street, with a depth of 85 feet.
 These are desirable building sites, adjoining the land belonging to F. T. Humphery, Esq. (formerly M'Culloch's), close to Prince Alfred Park and the Railway Station.

LOT 4.—CHARLES-STREET, Parramatta-street. Block of land 72 feet frontage to this street. In one or more lots, to suit purchasers.

LOT 5.—PYRMONT BRIDGE ROAD,
A very choice suburban villa site, upwards of one acre in extent, having about the following frontages:—145 feet to the Pyrmont Bridge Road, 132 feet to the Parramatta Road, between Didliston and Chester Lodge.
Plans on view at the Rooms, where also further particulars can be obtained.
Terms at sale.

CHAMBER-STREET, off BAY-STREET, GLEBE, recently erected WEATHERBOARD COTTAGE, containing 3 rooms, on the north side of CHAMBER-STREET, now occupied by Mr. Miles Tossimond.

RICHARDSON and WRENCH have received instructions to sell by public auction, at the Rooms, Pitt-street, on FRIDAY, 2nd May, at 11 o'clock,
The above small property in Chamber-street, off Bay-street, Glebe, held on lease, having about 75 years to run, without ground rent.

IMPORTANT CLEARING SALE.

NORTH KINGSTON, NEWTOWN.

THIRTY-SIX BUILDING ALLOTMENTS, fronting AUSTRALIA, DENISON, REGENT, AND BISHOPGATE STREETS.
TITLE—TORRENS'S ACT.

RICHARDSON and WRENCH have received instructions to sell by public auction, at the Rooms, Pitt-street, on FRIDAY, 16th May, at 11 o'clock, NEWTOWN.
NORTH KINGSTON, NEWTOWN.—36 building allotments of land, between the Railway Station and the PARRAMATTA ROAD, as follows:—
Nos. 25 to 30, 33, 34 and 37, 71 to 74, 77, 78, 81, 82, 85, 86, 89, 90, 93, 94, 97, 98, 101, 102, 105, 106 of section 3; and lots 10, 11, and 86 to 90, section 4, of the NORTH KINGSTON Subdivision, in Australia, Denison, Regent, and Bishopgate streets, each having 33 FEET frontages, with a depth of 82½ FEET, extending to lanes at the rear.
☞ These allotments are in the market for peremptory sale, the proprietor's object being positively to clear the whole on the above date.
Plan at the Rooms. Terms liberal.

Preliminary Notice.

FIRST-CLASS RESIDENCE AND GROUNDS, KNOWN AS "ROSEMOUNT," on the heights of ASHFIELD, together with 6½ acres (more or less) of highly improved Grounds, unquestionably the choicest position of this favourite suburb.

RICHARDSON and WRENCH have received instructions from J. Bartlett, Esq., to sell by public auction, on an early day, of which due notice will be given,
That delightfully situated and commodious residence and grounds, known as "ROSEMOUNT."
Full particulars of which will appear in a future advertisement.
☞ PARTICULAR ATTENTION is directed to the above ELIGIBLE PROPERTY, which is substantially built of BRICK on STONE FOUNDATION, only recently erected by the proprietor, regardless of expense, as a permanent family residence for himself, and is now to be disposed of solely in consequence of the decease of Mrs. BARTLETT, and his intention of leaving SYDNEY.
Title unquestionable. Terms at sale.

ALLOTMENTS AT TENTERFIELD AND MAROUBRA BAY.

T. W. BOWDEN is instructed by the executors of the late Rev. John Pendrill to sell by auction, at the Land Sale Rooms, 154, Pitt-street, on THURSDAY, the 1st of May, at half-past 11 o'clock prompt,

The northern boundary line separating it from lot 4 is 264 feet long. It is also bounded on the south-west by part of lot 1, formerly the property of Mr. Miller.
On the land are premises lately used as a Wesleyan schoolroom, originally a comfortable weatherboard verandah cottage.
The situation commands fine views of the harbour.
Title satisfactory. Terms at sale.

WARREGO DISTRICT, QUEENSLAND.

CARNARVON
and BABBILOORA.
with 30,000 Sheep
and 1,300 Cattle.

MORT and CO. have received instructions from Messrs. Fraser and Brown to sell by auction, at their Wool Warehouse, Circular Quay, on THURSDAY, the 1st May, at half-past 11 o'clock,
Those first-class pastoral properties known as CARNARVON and BABBILOORA, embracing the watershed of the River Warrego, with an area of over 500 SQUARE MILES of the most elevated and healthy country in Southern Queensland, on which all necessary improvements have been made; there are also about 18 miles wire fencing just completed.
The SHEEP consist of 14,176 ewes, 18 months to aged 11,047 wethers, 18 ditto to ditto
4499 weaned lambs, mixed sexes
239 rams

29,961 (more or less).
The above are FINE-WOOLLED and HEAVILY FLEECED, and about 7000 are now fat and READY FOR MARKET.
The CATTLE consist of a quiet and well-bred herd of 1300 HEAD, well proportioned as to average of sexes; also 70 HEAD of HORSES, of which 13 are draught and 60 saddle horses and mares, well broken, and one good stallion.
The IMPROVEMENTS at CARNARVON consist of, in addition to the 18 miles wire fencing, a SUBSTANTIALLY BUILT DWELLING-HOUSE, of 8 rooms, floored throughout, with good verandahs on both sides, and spacious detached kitchen; excellent fruit and vegetable garden, woolshed roofed with galvanized iron, horse paddocks, and stock-yards; also store, meat-house, with double-roof verandah all round, and pitched with stone; stable, cart-shed, and blacksmith's forge, all in one range.
At BABBILOORA there is an overseer's cottage, including store and detached kitchen; large horse paddock and stockyard; and on both stations there are the usual sheep-station improvements, and ordinary working plant.
THESE RUNS were selected by the present owners in 1859, and are for the most part held under leases for 21 years, from 1st July, 1869, with the usual right of renewal. The average elevation is about 2000 feet above the sea level, so that the CLIMATE IS HEALTHY. Vegetables in abundance are produced in the garden, which is stocked with choice fruit trees and grape vines, and possesses natural facilities for irrigation. The means of transit of produce to port is comparatively easy, and the cost of carriage will be still further reduced when the Northern line of railway is extended, as intended, to within 130 miles of the head station Carnarvon, which is now about 230 miles distant from the present terminus at Westwood.
CARNARVON is one of the BEST WATERED runs in the colony, and BABBILOORA principally consists of MYALL AND SALT BUSH COUNTRY, which for fattening qualities can scarcely be surpassed.
In short, these stations constitute one of the most desirable pastoral investments in Southern Queensland, and EARLY INSPECTION IS INVITED. Further particulars can be obtain on application to Messrs. FRASER and BROWN, on the station; or to MORT and CO.,
Circular Quay.

FOR POSITIVE AND UNRESERVED
SALE.

MAGNIFICENT SHEEP PROPERTIES
IN THE
LIVERPOOL PLAINS AND BLIGH DISTRICTS.

TO CLOSE A PARTNERSHIP ACCOUNT.

TERMS:—One-fourth cash; residue by Bills at one, two, three, and four years, with interest at 6 per cent. per annum added.

MORT and CO. have received instructions from Messrs. R. Campbell, and J. and E. Orr to offer, at public auction, for bona fide sale, on THURSDAY, the 1st of MAY, at half-past 11 o'clock precisely,
The following REALLY FIRST-CLASS PASTORAL PROPERTIES:—
LOT 1.
NOMBY
GARRAWILLA
GORIAGILLA
YAMINGABAH
DANDRY
DENABOLI
in the LIVERPOOL PLAINS DISTRICT.
with ONE HUNDRED AND FIVE THOUSAND (105,000) SHEEP (more or less), and seven hundred (700) head of mixed cattle (more or less).
NOMBY, GARRAWILLA, and GORIAGILLA contain an estimated area of one hundred and seventy thousand (170,000) acres, and were formed 40 years ago by the late G. H. Cox, Esq., and were sold with the sheep thereon in 1863, to the present proprietors, by the successors of that gentleman.
These stations are bounded by Bomera, Bando, and Melville Plains Stations, and are in every respect, equal in fattening qualities.
The country consisting of myall plains, box ridges, and appletree flats, is well watered in all seasons by springs, wells, and dams, as well as having the Nomby, Garrawilla, Goriagilla, and minor creeks running through them.
The stations are fenced in by post and rail, wire, and log fencing of a substantial character, and subdivided into seventeen (17) paddocks.
Yamingabah, Dandry, and Denaboli, consist of ninety-six thousand (96,000) acres, and adjoin Garrawilla, and are worked in conjunction with Garrawilla, Nomby, and Goriagilla as auxiliary stations, and are well watered by springs and never failing creeks.
The country consists of box ridges and appletree flats.
The various improvements have cost the present proprietors over £20,000.
At Garrawilla, advantage has been taken of a never-failing spring of soft water to erect a large washing plant, at which are all the newest appliances for spouting and hot water washing—the water being raised by means of a centrifugal pump and 12 h. p. steam engine, the arrangements for scouring any quantity of wool are complete, the present proprietors having been accustomed for some years' past, to scour all the greasy wool from their breeding ewes. Attached to the washpool are battened yards, which extend to the woolshed, and are capable of holding twelve thousand (12,000) sheep. The washed sheep can be kept on these battened yards until they are ready for shearing—thus enabling them to arrive in the woolshed without a particle of dust—a great consideration where a large number of sheep have to be shorn.
The woolshed is 164 feet long by 40 feet wide, is built of ironbark slabs and shingled; batten floor for sheep, and boarded floor for thirty shearers, with rack and pinion press by Russell and Co., of Sydney.
There are also two large receiving sheds for wool, one at the wash-pool and the other at the drying-yards.
At the head station are two comfortable cottages of 6 rooms each, with detached kitchens, outhouses, &c., &c., with orchards and gardens well-stocked; stores, office, and other buildings, men's huts, &c., &c. Stock and drafting yards, and two horse paddocks of 320 acres each.
With these stations will be sold 165,000 sheep (more or less) of the following ages and sexes, viz.:—

| | Ewes. | Wethers. |
|---|---|---|
| Aged | 6457 | ...... |
| 4½ years | 15,991 | 4510 |
| 3½ ditto | 7978 | 4943 |
| 2½ ditto | 7497 | 7285 |
| 1½ ditto | 15,573 | 15,168 |
| Weaners | 9671 | 9083 |

And 903 rams.
running in 17 paddocks, tended by ten boundary riders.

LOT 2.
GOORIANAWAH
BARADINE
BELAR
in the districts of BLIGH and LIVERPOOL PLAINS, with FIFTY-FIVE THOUSAND SHEEP (55,000), more or less, comprising an estimated area of 196,000 acres.
The two former stations were formed by the late Mr. E. Cox, about 40 years ago, and were sold by the representatives of that gentleman to the present proprietors.
GOORIANAWAH is considered one of the best stations in the Bligh district, and consists of open myall and salt bush plains and box ridges.
A large sum has been expended on this station to render the supply of water permanent, ten dams having been made, all of which were filled by the late rains.
There are also eight wells, from some of which, during the drought of 1868 the sheep on the station were watered.
BARADINE, adjoining Goorianawah, is open box country, watered by the Baradine Creek.
BELAR consists of open box country and appletree flats, and is splendidly watered, having a large frontage to the Castlereagh River. It is also intersected by the Belar and Jack Hall's Creeks, and having abundance of soft water for sheep washing, forms a most valuable adjunct to Goorianawah and Baradine.
On Goorianawah head station is a neat shingled cottage; the other improvements consisting of woolshed, store, stable, men's huts, &c., together with a garden and house paddock of 320 acres.
With this lot will be sold 55,000 sheep (more or less) of the following ages and sexes, viz.:—

| | Ewes. | Wethers. |
|---|---|---|
| Aged | 3376 | ...... |
| 4½ years | 8367 | 2261 |
| 3½ ditto | 4178 | 2591 |
| 2½ ditto | 3925 | 3813 |
| 1½ ditto | 8158 | 7944 |
| Weaners | 5068 | 4755 |

And 472 rams.

LOT 3.
ULAMAMBRI
and ULABRIBLE.
in the BLIGH DISTRICT, with fifteen thousand (15,000) sheep, more or less.
These stations, like Goorianawah, were formed by the late Mr. Edward Cox, and are situated on the Castlereagh River, to which they have a large frontage.
They consist of plains, open box forests, and appletree flats, and are capable of carrying 25,000 sheep.
The improvements consist of excellent woolshed, shingled, erected at a cost of £1000; two shingled cottages, store, stockyards, &c., and horse paddock.
These runs adjoin Garrawilla and Yamingabah, and can be worked either separately or in conjunction with them.
With these will be sold 15,000 sheep (more or less) of the following ages and sexes, viz.:—

| | Ewes. | Wethers. |
|---|---|---|
| Aged | 946 | ...... |
| 4½ years | 2283 | 644 |
| 3½ ditto | 1139 | 707 |
| 2½ ditto | 1069 | 1638 |
| 1½ ditto | 2226 | 2166 |
| Weaners | 1383 | 1296 |

And 128 rams.
The proprietors wish to call attention to the fact that these sheep were bred by Messrs. G. H. and E. K. Cox, and that the only rams ever used on the stations have been those of Mr. Nicholas Bayly, Mr. James Riley of Lewes, and the Messrs. Cox.
The sheep are therefore, in point of fact, PURE SAXON MERINO, and great care in culling having each year been exercised, the auctioneers are enabled to assert that all the flocks are of a first-class quality.
The wool commands a high price in the London market, the price of last year's O over RR in triangle clip, consisting of 1000 bales, having ranged from 2s to 2s 11d per lb.
The stores, drays, implements, horses, working bullocks, and other effects on the several stations to be taken at a valuation.
The sheep were shorn in September last, and will be carrying nearly 9 months' wool at time of delivery.
All the above REALLY FIRST-CLASS PROPERTIES being placed in the market for POSITIVE SALE, intending purchasers are particularly invited to inspect the country and stock.

MORT and CO. do not hesitate in saying that during the whole of their business experience, extending over a quarter of a century, they have never had the opportunity of submitting to public competition more desirable and lucrative pastoral investments than the above.
For further particulars apply to
MORT and CO.

SALE of Messrs. R. CAMPBELL and J. and E. ORR'S STATIONS in Liverpool Plains and Bligh Districts, GARRAWILLA, GOORIANAWAH, and ULABRIBLE.

MORT and CO. desire to notify as distinctly as possible that the sale of the above stations, advertised for the 1st May will be ALTOGETHER A BONA FIDE SALE, and that the properties will not under any circumstances be bought in, but are for absolute sale WITHOUT RESERVE, and will be sold to the highest bidder.
MORT and CO. are informed that a contrary statement has been circulated, and feel called upon to publish this contradiction of it.
If any of the partners should become the purchaser, it will only be as a bona fide purchaser and the highest bidder, and subject to the same terms and conditions as are offered to the public.
MORT and CO.

CHOICE STATIONS.

NEW ENGLAND DISTRICT.

QUEENSLAND.

LIGHTLY STOCKED STATIONS, known as
NELLYBRI
and CULGARRA,
with 6900 (more or less) SHEEP.

MORT and CO. have received instructions from Messrs. H. and C. Lloyd, in consequence of their leaving the colony, to sell by public auction, at the Sale Room of their Wool Warehouses, Phillip-street, Circular Quay, on THURSDAY, 15th of May, at half-past 11 o'clock,
The above-named VALUABLE PROPERTIES.
NELLYBRI is situated in the Maranoa district, about 20 miles east of Surat, and 150 miles from the DALBY RAILWAY TERMINUS, and adjoins the well-known NOORINDOO STATIONS of the Messrs. Hall.
The AREA is about 36 SQUARE MILES, and comprises a large extent of OPEN UNDULATING DOWNS, covered with MYALL and SALTBUSH herbage, and altogether the country is of a most fattening description, and is WATERED by branches of the Ogilvie and Kangaroo Creeks.
The IMPROVEMENTS are ample, including homestead with galvanised roofing, wool shed, drafting yards, hurdles, paddock, out-stations, &c., &c.
CULGARRA is situated in the DARLING DOWNS district, embracing an area of 87 SQUARE MILES, having a frontage to the Condamine River, and is also watered by Palm and other creeks.
IMPROVEMENTS, consisting of out-stations, huts, yards, &c., &c.

The above stations are worked in conjunction with each other, and are only 30 miles apart, and being LIGHTLY STOCKED, present a good opportunity for a SAFE and REMUNERATIVE INVESTMENT; their situation at such a moderate distance from the Railway and FAT STOCK Markets rendering them very DESIRABLE PROPERTIES.
The only reason of these stations being brought into the market is the determination arrived at by the proprietors to return to the neighbouring colony of Tasmania.
With the stations will be sold horses, necessary working plant, stores, &c., &c., to be taken at a valuation in the usual way.

Further particulars may be obtained on application at "Nellybri," Condamine, Queensland; or to MORT and CO., Circular Quay.

WESTERN SLOPES OF NEW ENGLAND DISTRICT.

FOR POSITIVE SALE,
THAT FIRST-CLASS AND HIGHLY-IMPROVED PASTORAL PROPERTY, TENTERFIELD,
with 30,000 SHEEP
and 1800 CATTLE.

Terms liberal.

BREWSTER and TREBECK have received instructions from Messrs. J. and W. Christian to sell by public auction, at their Rooms, Squatters' Exchange, Sydney, on WEDNESDAY, the 21st May,
THE TENTERFIELD STATION, with the above stock. This is a choice property, in a fine climate, and well worth the attention of capitalists.
Full particulars may be seen in each Saturday's HERALD.

THE DONGA STATION
(without stock), in the MARANOA DISTRICT, QUEENSLAND, adjoining and near HALL'S WERIBONE and NOOROONDA STATIONS, and TOOTH'S TALAVERA STATION.

Terms, very liberal.

BREWSTER and TREBECK have received instructions from the proprietors to sell by auction, at their Rooms, Squatters' Exchange, Sydney, on WEDNESDAY, 21st May, at 11 o'clock.
The DONGA STATION,
comprising the blocks called
Donga Morocco
Algiers Mogadore
Tripoli
The country is very sound and fattening, and CAPABLE OF DEPASTURING 35,000 SHEEP, besides CATTLE. It is abundantly watered by a long frontage to the Balonne River and by the Donga and numerous other creeks. Four or five blocks lately forfeited may be resumed from the Government.
☞ This is a FAVOURABLE OPPORTUNITY for SMALL CAPITALISTS to acquire a large, healthy, and profitable station, within an easy distance of the railway terminus at Dalby.

MAGNIFICENT CATTLE RUNS,
BLIGH DISTRICT,
known as
THE BOGARA STATION, on the CASTLEREAGH RIVER, with 2000 HEAD OF CATTLE, more or less,
mixed sexes, principally males.
Also,
THE KIDGAR STATION, on the CASTLEREAGH RIVER,
with 1000 HEAD OF CATTLE, more or less.

BREWSTER and TREBECK have received instructions from Edward Flood, Esq., to sell by auction, at their Rooms, Squatters' Exchange, George-street, Sydney, on WEDNESDAY, 21st May, at 11 o'clock, LOT 1.—THE BOGARA STATION, consisting of the blocks called Bogara, Back Warran, Warran Creek No. 1, and Warran Creek No. 2. These runs form a compact block, containing about 70,600 ACRES OF THE FINEST FATTENING COUNTRY IN THE WESTERN DISTRICT, being open myall plains, abounding with the well-known blue and barley grasses. This station is WELL AND PERMANENTLY WATERED by the well-known long reach of the Bogara Waterhole in the Castlereagh River, and also by the Warran Creek.
WITH BOGARA will be offered,
2000, MORE OR LESS, MIXED CATTLE.
The cows are the progeny of Mr. Lowe's noted herd; and there are about 1400 males, 1200 of which are bullocks over two years old.
Horses, drays, stores, &c., &c., to be taken at a valuation.
THE IMPROVEMENTS ON BOGARA consist of a four-roomed house, large stock and milking yards; cottage and yards at the back of the run; fencing on the river; and all other appliances for working the property to advantage.
BOGARA IS ESTIMATED TO CARRY 4500 HEAD OF CATTLE IN ALL SEASONS. It adjoins the properties of Messrs. Moses, Heness, Britton, Barden, and M'Phillamy.
LOT 2.—THE KIDGAR STATION, consisting of the blocks known as Kidgar, Guanguangilla, and Treibone, adjoining the properties of Messrs. Moses, Bell, Brocklehurst, Barden, and Stevenson. IT IS A COMPACT BLOCK OF THE RICHEST DESCRIPTION OF FATTENING COUNTRY, myall and saltbush plains, richly grassed and watered by 15 TO 16 MILES FRONTAGE TO THE CASTLEREAGH RIVER. There is a plentiful supply of water in the driest seasons.
WITH THE KIDGAR STATION will be offered,
1000, MORE OR LESS, MIXED CATTLE,
a quiet, well-bred herd, brought to their present high quality by many years of judicious selection and careful attention.
Horses, drays, stores, &c., &c., to be taken at a valuation.
THE IMPROVEMENTS comprise a seven-roomed house, substantial and complete stockyards for working 1500 herd, and all other necessary buildings, &c. The back line is enclosed by a strong fence.
THE ESTIMATED GRAZING CABABILITIES ARE 3000 HEAD IN ALL SEASONS.

☞ THESE STATIONS are without doubt the TWO BEST THAT HAVE EVER BEEN OFFERED to the public in the favourite fattening district of Bligh. The FAT STOCK from them invariably command the HIGHEST PRICES BOTH in THIS and the VICTORIAN MARKETS, and each can be recommended as a desirable and profitable investment for MODERATE CAPITALISTS. Intending purchasers are invited to inspect the properties to be convinced of the extreme richness and fattening qualities of the pasture.
Further particulars can be obtained at the Rooms.
BREWSTER and TREBECK.

BARCOO RIVER, MITCHELL DISTRICT, QUEENSLAND.

THE ALICE DOWNS STATION, with 44,000 SHEEP.
THE AVINGTON STATION, with 4500 CATTLE.

FOR POSITIVE AND UNRESERVED SALE by order of the Executors of the Estates of John Donald M'Lean and William Beit, Esquires (OF THE LATE FIRM OF M'LEAN AND BEIT, OF WESTBROOK, DARLING DOWNS).
TERMS.—One third cash, residue by approved bills at one, two, and three years, with interest at 6 per cent. per annum added, secured on the property by way of mortgage.

BREWSTER and TREBECK have received instructions from the Executors to sell by public auction, at their Rooms, Squatters' Exchange, George-street, Sydney, on WEDNESDAY, the 21st May, at 11 o'clock, LOT 1. The ALICE DOWNS STATION, consisting of an immense extent of the finest undulating and open downs country on the Barcoo River, and NOT TO BE SURPASSED for quality by any in that celebrated district.
THE WHOLE IS PERMANENTLY AND ABUNDANTLY WATERED by the River Barcoo, Douglass Ponds, Spring Creek, Thornleigh Creek, and numerous other tributaries of the Barcoo River, all filled to overflowing by the recent rains.
With ALICE DOWNS will be sold
44,000, more or less, SHEEP, as under:—

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Wethers—1,900, 4 years | | Ewes—6,200, 4 and 5 years |
| " 4,500, 3 ditto | | " 7,000, 3 ditto |
| " 7,700, 1½ ditto | | " 8,000, 1½ ditto |
| " 1,400, hoggets | | " 1,400, hoggets |
| " 2,700, weaners | | " 2,600, weaners |
| Rams— 600 | | |
| 18,800 | | 25,200 |

THESE SHEEP are of the HIGHEST QUALITY, having been bred from the famous Westbrook Stud flocks.
250 RAMS, from Glengallan and Westbrook, are now on the road to the station. Also,
Horses, drays, stores, working bullocks, drays, and all sundries to be taken at a valuation.
The IMPROVEMENTS comprise superintendent's cottage, store, men's and sheep station huts, yards, &c., &c. Preparations are being made, and materials being collected for a new woolshed, capable of shearing 60,000 sheep.
LOT 2. THE AVINGTON STATION, embracing a very large area of first-class country, SIMILAR to ALICE DOWNS. The fattening qualities of the grasses and herbage on this station justly entitle it to be called one of the VERY BEST CATTLE STATIONS IN THE COLONIES. The fat stock sent to Adelaide and Melbourne have invariably topped the market.
With Avington will be sold
4500 (more or less) CATTLE.
These are VERY HIGHLY BRED, the majority being by the progeny of imported bulls, from the celebrated Westbrook stud herds.
The IMPROVEMENTS on AVINGTON comprise the necessary stockyards, paddocks, &c., for working the property to the best advantage.

☞ These SPLENDID PROPERTIES being in the market for ABSOLUTE SALE, Messrs. Brewster and Trebeck would direct the attention of capitalists to the present opportunity of acquiring a really first-class station, in perfect working order. It is surrounded by those well-known stations Isis Downs, Malvern Hills, Northampton Downs, Ravensbourne, Terrick Downs, and Mooraland. The town of Blackall is within three miles of the Home Station, and affords favourable opportunities of procuring labour more readily than on the outside stations; distance from Rockhampton is about 400 miles. Most of the blocks are held under the Pastoral Leases Act of 1869.
The numbers and areas of the blocks will shortly be published. In the meantime, every information may be obtained at the Rooms.
BREWSTER and TREBECK.

ROYAL VICTORIA THEATRE.

The Director of the above popular place of entertainment, in acknowledging the extensive patronage bestowed during the past, begs to inform patrons and the public in general that on MONDAY NEXT, 5TH MAY, 1873, will be inaugurated an entirely
NEW SEASON, with NEW MANAGEMENT, NEW FACES, and OLD FRIENDS, and that he has been fortunate in the engagement of
MISS ADELAIDE BOWRING,
pronounced by the unanimous voice of the whole of the leading journals of the colonies to be
THE GREATEST ACTRESS OF THE AGE, IN TRAGEDY OR COMEDY.

MISS BOWRING
will appear in a series of her greatest characters, and will be supported by a NUMEROUS AND TALENTED COMPANY, composed of artists of ability quite new to a Sydney audience, and OLD FAVOURITES,
who "have won golden opinions from all sorts of people."

THE SCENIC DEPARTMENT will be under the artistic operation and supervision of Mr. W. J. WILSON, whose excellence requires no managerial guarantee, while
THE MECHANICAL DEPARTMENT will, as heretofore, be entrusted to the care of
Mr. JOHN RENNO.

THE ORCHESTRA,
hitherto faultless, will continue under the able leadership of Mr. WALTER RICE.

Miss ADELAIDE BOWRING
will make her first appearance in Mr. EDMUND YATES'S splendid play of BLACK SHEEP,
in which she sustains the character of HARRIET ROUTH.

A FEW OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.
BLACK SHEEP.—"It is difficult to do justice to the acting of Miss Bowring in this piece. * * * It is a volume of love, despair, and indifference. * * * From first to last there was no straining at effect, no extravagant gesture—nothing but deep feeling and womanly passion." WELLINGTON INDEPENDENT, July, 1872.
MERCHANT OF VENICE.—"The Portia of Miss Bowring is the finest we ever remember."—ARGUS, April 5, 1873.
MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING.—"Our opinion of her merits we expressed the other day on the occasion of her playing Portia. Miss Bowring is simply the only leading Shakesperian actress on the colonial stage."—IBID, April 12, 1873. "The vacancy caused by her retirement from the Theatre Royal Company cannot be filled."—IBID, April 14, 1873.
OTHELLO.—"Of Miss Bowring's Emilia I can but report what I have many times said before, that it is perfect.—AUSTRALASIAN, 20th March, 1873. Miss Bowring's Emilia is, without exception, the best that has ever been on the colonial stage." ARGUS, 26th March, 1873.
RICHARD III.—"Miss Bowring as the Queen is faultless." TELEGRAPH (Melbourne), 22nd March, 1873.
HAMLET.—"Miss Bowring's assumption of the Queen was impressive and dignified."—ARGUS, 15th March, 1873.

These notices are culled at random from the papers named, and will give some idea of the opinions held of this lady by the critics; but apart from these she is now introduced to the public as a dramatic artiste of unquestionable excellence.
